Professionalism Welcomes New Director

In April 2014, FDLE Commissioner Gerald Bailey appointed Dean Register as the Director of Criminal Justice Professionalism. In his new role, Director Register oversees the competency and professional conduct of Florida's criminal justice officers and training of FDLE members and Florida's criminal justice community through the bureaus of Professional Development, Training, Standards, and Policy and Special Programs.

Director Register has almost 30 years of law enforcement experience, beginning as an officer with the Florida State University Police Department, and later joining the Leon County Sheriff's Office where he served as a deputy sheriff and detective. In 1990, he joined the FDLE Capitol Police where he was promoted through the ranks, eventually serving as director. In his most recent role as assistant inspector general, Director Register oversaw state and national law enforcement accreditation for FDLE, and regularly evaluated other agencies throughout the USA and Canada as an accreditation assessor.

Among the numerous awards Director Register has received during his tenure with FDLE are: 2002 Distinguished Member of the Year, member of the 2005 Distinguished Team of the Year, and recipient of a Superior Unit Citation. In 2011, the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation honored him with the Sheriff Neil J. Perry Service Award.

Director Register is a certified inspector general, a graduate of the Chief Executive Seminar and received his bachelor's degree in criminology from Florida State University.

Professionalism provides staff support to the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC), the Florida Medical Examiners Commission (MEC), the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation (CFA), the Corrections Accreditation Commission (FCAC), and the Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute (FCJEI) Policy Board. Since his appointment, Director Register has already participated in quarterly meetings of the CJSTC, a FCJEI Policy Board meeting, the summer conference of the accreditation commissions (CFA/FCAC), and the annual DARE Officer Training program.

Farewell

On June 30, 2014, Ms. Donna Hunt retired after more than 27 years of service to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. For much of her tenure, Donna was an integral part of ensuring the smooth operations of Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC) meetings. Donna's vast knowledge of the Commission's rules made her an invaluable part of the Professionalism family. In addition to her duties managing the rules process, she also coordinated with the Governor's Appointments Office on the appointments of all CJSTC members.

Donna worked closely with the Professionalism division's management team to ensure that issues were scheduled and that the agendas presented to the Commission were accurate and timely. Management continuously relied on Donna to research important historical issues that would arise. She worked closely with Training Center Directors and Commission members, and developed exceptional professional relationships with these individuals.

The Professionalism division wishes Donna all the best as she begins this brand new chapter of her life with her husband, Charlie, and her canine kids, Cocoa and Cotton. We will definitely miss Donna, and sincerely thank her for her commitment to excellence as well as for her dedication to FDLE and to the Professionalism division.

State Officer Certification Examination Statistics
Third Quarter, Fiscal Year 2013–14

Commission to Hear Recommendations for Changes to Advanced and Specialized Programs

Florida Statutes requires the Commission to design, implement, maintain, evaluate, revise, or adopt a specialized training program consisting of identified goals and objectives that enhance an officer's ability to perform his or her duties. Florida Statutes allows the use of Criminal Justice Standards and Training Trust Fund monies to deliver courses in the Specialized Training Program. Additionally, Florida Statutes requires that the Commission design, implement, maintain, evaluate, revise, or adopt an advanced training program which is limited to those courses enhancing an officer's knowledge, skills, and abilities for the job he or she performs. Officers completing training in the Advanced Training Program may receive salary incentive credit.

Beginning in 2012, Commission staff conducted a post-basic needs assessment to identify the training needs of law enforcement, corrections, and correctional probation officers. In August 2014, Commission staff will recommend changes to the Advanced and Specialized Training Programs based on the needs assessment.

Commission staff conducted three separate analyses of the post-basic training needs of law enforcement, correctional, and correctional probation officers in Florida. The analyses were completed in four phases:

- officer focus groups held in seven cities around the state;
- officer-level survey;
- agency-level survey; and
- training center-level survey.

The results of the analyses provided data-driven information to be considered when making decisions regarding Commission post-basic training courses.

Several workshops were held with members of the Training Center Directors Advanced Training Committee. The purpose of the workshops was to determine what impact the Post-Basic Needs Assessment should have on the Commission's post-basic training programs. The Committee reviewed all the data collected during the training needs assessment, reviewed ATMS course data for the past five years, and analyzed the objectives in current training courses to assess whether each Commission post-basic course was relevant and essential for officers to adequately and safely perform their duties. The Committee also considered post-basic training that is available through private vendors. Finally, the Committee reviewed current practices in deciding which courses would be Advanced and which would be Specialized, and developed criteria to establish protocol for making such determinations in the future. As a result, the training center directors made recommendations regarding maintaining, retiring, and developing courses.

Summary of Course Recommendations

	Advanced	Specialized
Retire Courses	8	11
Replace with Updated Courses	13	3
Develop New Courses	8	6
Move Courses to Other Training Program	4	1

At the August 2014 meeting of the Commission, staff will present these recommendations for approval. The Commission's decision will be announced to all local and state agencies and training schools by technical memorandum.

Florida D.A.R.E. Training Program Certifies Twenty New Officers

The FDLE Fort Myers Regional Operations Center was the host site for the D.A.R.E. Officer Training class, which was held June 16-27, 2014. Twenty police officers and deputy sheriffs, as well as military police from Florida, Georgia and Texas, became certified to teach the D.A.R.E. curriculum in their respective jurisdictions. The students received 80 hours of intensive training during which they learned not only the D.A.R.E. elementary and middle school curriculum, but also how to enhance their written, verbal and nonverbal communication, problem solving and many other life skills. Proficiency in training is tested by their ability to teach an assigned 45-minute lesson to their peers, with a mentor giving the final grade. On the day before graduation, the students went to local schools, interacting with students and delivering lessons.

In this D.A.R.E. training class, two mentors in their final phase of training and five D.A.R.E. officers, who completed the 40-hour recertification curriculum, were certified.

Florida Law Enforcement Analyst Academy Graduates Class 23

In April 2014, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement graduated its twenty-third class of certified analysts. The class was held in Tallahassee, Florida, and brought together law enforcement analysts from across the state representing police departments, sheriffs offices and various state agencies, as well as an attendee from the federal government.

The graduation ceremony took place at the Florida Department of Law Enforcement Headquarters building and was attended by command staff from the respective agencies to celebrate the accomplishments of Class 23. The keynote speaker was Assistant Commissioner Cindy Sanz. Donna Sita of the Osceola Sheriff's Office (pictured in front row, far left) was chosen to deliver the class address.
