

WANTED

Phillip Donovan

Alias: Joseph Michael Capano

Donovan escaped from the Bradenton Work Release Center in 1982 while on work release. At the time of his escape, Donovan was serving time for first-degree murder.

Donovan entered a Miami Beach hotel on April 11, 1964 and demanded that the clerk hand over money. When the clerk refused, Donovan shot him between the eyes.

Donovan served in the U.S. Army in a clerical position. Outside the Army, he has worked as a shipping clerk, delivery man, and did some farm work. He was a bartender briefly in California. He enjoys softball, baseball, shooting pool, swimming, and going to the movies. He has relatives in New York City.
