

WANTED

Harry Dana Braswell

Aliases: Harry McQuery, Harry McCery, Robert Jackson, and Troy Jackson

Braswell escaped from the Sumter Correctional Institution in 1983 by concealing himself in a piece of furniture within a large truck that was being transported out of the prison. Authorities say Braswell has been spotted in Jasper, Fla. and Odessa, Texas.

Braswell was arrested murder on Feb. 22, 1975 for the death of John Robbins. Braswell and three accomplices entered Robbins' Suwannee County home on Feb. 19, 1975, tied him to a bed, and suffocated him with a pillow. Braswell and his accomplices were arrested in Quincy, Fla. and subsequently sentenced to life in prison.
