

Reasons for denial for Juvenile Diversion Expunction

Pursuant to section s. 943.0582 Florida Statutes, a Juvenile Diversion Expunction can not be granted under any of the following circumstances:

1. The application has been submitted more than six months after completion of a qualifying pre/post arrest diversion program.
2. The arrest for which the application was submitted qualifies as an act of (domestic violence) as that term is defined in section 741.28, Florida Statutes.
3. The arrest for which the application was submitted is not a (nonviolent misdemeanor) as that term is used in section 943.0582, Florida Statutes.
4. The applicant has been charged with or found to have committed a criminal offense or comparable ordinance violation, other than the offense to be expunged prior to the filing of the application for expunction.
5. The appropriate state attorney has declined to certify that the applicant has successfully completed a qualified pre/post arrest diversion program.