

Leadership Essay 1:

Many of the decisions we make have no “right” answer. Describe a recent decision you made which involved a variety of alternatives perceived by others as “right”. Discuss the rationale and the process you used to make that decision.

The essays will be evaluated based on content, grammar, punctuation, spelling and organization.

Your Name:

Leadership Essay 2:

The world is continually experiencing social, political, economic, technological, and environmental change. Choose one of the subjects that you feel will have the greatest impact on you or your organization in the next five years. Describe the positive and negative effects that you believe would result from this change.

The essays will be evaluated based on content, grammar, punctuation, spelling and organization.

Your Name:

Leadership Essay 3:

Identify a historical event that changed criminal justice at either the local, state or national level. Describe the event and discuss the resulting impact it had on criminal justice.

The essays will be evaluated based on content, grammar, punctuation, spelling and organization.

Your Name: