ACTIVITY AREA DEFINITIONS

Law enforcement: Includes all programs (e.g., crime prevention, intervention), activities, or spending conducted by a law enforcement organization. This includes all task force activities but does not include crime lab/forensic activities/programs.

Crime lab/forensics: Includes all programs, activities, or spending focused on the identification, collection, or processing of forensic evidence; for example, a sexual assault nurse examiner or sexual assault response team, or sexual assault kit testing initiative or DNA backlog reduction program.

Crime prevention (not as part of a law enforcement agency): Includes all programs, activities, or spending for crime or juvenile delinquency prevention conducted through engaging communities, institutions (e.g., schools), or individuals. This includes such programs as a rape aggression defense class, an alcohol/drug awareness class for students, or a bullying-prevention program.

Prosecution: Includes all programs, activities, or spending related to the prosecution of criminal defendants.

Public defense: Includes all programs, activities, or spending for the defense of individuals.

Courts: Includes all programs, activities, or spending for courts. This includes drug courts and other specialty courts.

Corrections: Includes all programs, activities, or spending by a residential correctional agency such as a jail or prison. This includes corrections programs focused on reentry services for inmates.

Community corrections: Includes all programs, activities, or spending by a community corrections agency. This includes community corrections programs focused on reentry.

Reentry services (not as part of a corrections, community corrections, or court program): Includes all programs, activities, or spending for reentry. This includes reentry programs run by private, nonprofit, or other non-correctional government organizations.

Behavioral health (not as part of a corrections, community corrections, or court program): Includes all programs, activities, or spending for mental health, substance abuse, or co-occurring treatment that are run by private, nonprofit, or other non-correctional government organizations.

Assessment and evaluation: Includes all programs, activities, or spending for the assessment or evaluation of programs, policies, practices, or technology. This also includes strategic planning activities. For example, this could be the development of a strategic plan, an evaluation of a drug treatment service, or the cost-benefit analysis of adopting body-worn cameras.

Crime victim/witness services: Includes all programs, activities, or spending focused on assisting crime victims, families, or witnesses. For example, this could be a 24-hour domestic violence hotline, an emergency shelter, or food distribution services for displaced victims.

Other: Includes all uses of JAG funding not captured in any other activity area.
