School Safety Specialists

- All Florida school district superintendents have designated School Safety Specialists
- 46 school districts have confirmed via FSSAT that they are implementing active shooter training exercises at their schools
- Per FSSAT, 46 districts have reported that the district school safety specialist coordinates with appropriate public safety agencies – 6 are in progress

Training for School Safety Specialists

- August 24, 2018 – Invitation to Negotiate (ITN) for active shooter training released
- November 28, 2018 – ITN closes
- January, 2019 – vendor contract anticipated
- Training dates will be scheduled to maximize participation
- Six FEMA Independent Study courses have been identified as prerequisites

Centralized Integrated Data Repository

In May 2018, FDOE established three work groups that consist of members from the Department of Children and Families, Department of Law Enforcement, Department of Juvenile Justice, and Agency of Healthcare Administration.

- Workgroup 1 (User and Data Governance): responsible for identifying data and access controls within the centralized system.
- Workgroup 2 (Technology): responsible for recommending a technical solution, implementation strategy, and the sustainability plan for the centralized system.
- Workgroup 3 (Legal): responsible for recommending data sharing agreements, procedures, and user access form.

Centralized Integrated Data Repository

- The Legal Workgroup is currently conducting a review of State and Federal Statutes to determine the ability and limitations of data sharing
- FDOE is currently evaluating existing data systems to determine if a system can be expanded to support the Centralized Integrated Data Repository, prior to developing a new system

Social Media Monitoring Tool

- The purpose of this Social Media Monitoring tool is to help school districts monitor threats of violence against students, employees, and schools
- The system will scan social media to identify signs of bullying, self-harm, or threat of violence against students, employees, and schools
- The Intent to Negotiate (ITN) was released on August 3, 2018
- Responses to the ITN were due on September 6, 2018
- There were eight (8) respondents

Multiagency Network for Students with Emotional/Behavioral Disabilities

SEDNET:

- Collaborates with local agencies and provides direct support to school districts in expanding school based mental health services, internally, and from community agencies and providers.
- Assists with coordinating services at the local, regional and state levels of the Interagency Review teams, Florida System of Care, and Court Circuit.
- Information, interventions, community supports and agencies identified within the local systems of care are shared with schools and families to ensure access to appropriate evidence-based services and programs for families and students with emotional/behavioral disabilities.

Youth Mental Health Awareness Training

- FDOE collaborated with the National Council for Behavioral Health (National Council) and Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA).
- YMHFA, a program listed on SAMHSA's National Registry of Evidenced-based Programs and Practices Knowledge Network.
- FDOE collaborated with District School Safety Specialists and SEDNET representatives to facilitate and support districts' provisions of youth mental health training.
- FDOE collaborated with the National Council and established a 3 day YMHFA training program designed to train school district personnel in all Florida school districts as trainers.
- Since July 1, 2018, FDOE facilitated training for 295 nationally certified YMHFA trainers representing school districts in all 19 SEDNET regions throughout the state.
- FDOE collaborated with the National Council and established a 6 hour training option for school district personnel as "first-aiders."

Mental Health Assistance Allocation

- Plans must be focused on evidence-based mental health care treatment
- School districts shall submit approved plans, including approved plans of each charter school in the district, to the commissioner by August 1 of each fiscal year
- The department provided technical assistance to districts on June 1, 2018 and hosted regional meetings
- Approved plans can be viewed at:
<http://www.fldoe.org/safe-schools/mental-health.shtml>
