

PROTECT YOUR EVERY DAY

Potential Indicators of Suspicious Activities Related To Religious Facilities

What Should I Consider Suspicious?

- Suspicious persons wearing bulky clothing that could conceal weapons
- Damage to security devices like cameras, perimeter fencing or lighting
- Persons expressing interest in facility layout or infrastructure or someone taking pictures or videos of the facility with no explanation
- Unattended packages and bags or suspicious packages received by mail
- Website defacement or threatening emails
- Unattended vehicles, particularly those parked adjacent to the facility
- Employees associating with suspicious individuals and working more irregular hours
- Persons attempting to enter unauthorized area
- Sudden increases in power outages designed to test facility systems
- A pattern of false alarms requiring a law enforcement response

It is important to remember that just because someone's speech, actions, beliefs, appearance, or way of life is different, does not mean that he or she is suspicious.

What Should I Do?

- ✓ Require a valid driver's license from all customers.
- ✓ Make note of suspicious statements, people and/or vehicles.
- ✓ Report missing or stolen vehicles or license plates to law enforcement authorities.
- ✓ If something seems wrong, notify law enforcement authorities.

Ensuring domestic security is a community effort. By learning what to look for, you can make a positive contribution to domestic security.

Do not jeopardize your safety or the safety of others. In an emergency, call 911.

This information was adapted from indicators provided by the FDLE. For additional suspicious activity indicators, please visit the Florida See Something, Say Something website at www.FLSeeSay.org.

