Subject: Approval of Scott Specialty Gases as the Source of Dry Gas Standards For the State of Florida

Dear Mr. Eichelmann:

The information provided to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement by Scott Specialty Gases and by its supplier CMI, Inc., establishes the following:

- Scott Specialty Gases is a manufacturer of 0.08 g/210L ethanol dry gas standards.
- CMI, Inc. is the distributor of Scott Specialty Gases dry gas standards.
- Scott Specialty Gases produces dry gas standards that are traceable to the National Institute of Standards and Technology.
- Scott Specialty Gases dry gas standards are certified as to content and alcohol vapor concentration. A certificate of analysis is provided with each cylinder of dry gas standard.
- Scott Specialty Gases is capable of producing a minimum of 300 cylinders of dry gas standard during a thirty day period at a vapor alcohol concentration of 0.08 g/210L.
- Scott Specialty Gases dry gas standards are reliable for at least two years from the date of manufacture.

Based on the information provided, Scott Specialty Gases has been approved as the source of dry gas standards for use in the State of Florida.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (850) 410-7810.

Sincerely,

Guy M. Tunnell
Commissioner

List account number(s) here (optional)

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 2. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 2.

OR

Employer identification number

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 2 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 2.)

Sign Here Signature of U.S. person [Signature] Date 11/1/07

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must get your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to give your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 30% of such payments after December 31, 2001 (20% after December 31, 2003). This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

- You do not furnish your TIN to the requester, or
- You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 2 for details), or
- The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN, or
- The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions on page 2 and the separate instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of Federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Dear Laura:

Wow! As you may have heard, 2007 has brought significant change to Scott Specialty Gases. Air Liquide purchased our business, and we are now part of the largest gas company in the world. This is really great news!

As our valued customer, we can now bring you the best of both companies. You will still receive the personal service and touch of a small company, while having access to new expanded capabilities and increased global coverage.

As always, I hope that all is well with you and your family, and wish you and yours a successful year in 2008.

Please accept and enjoy the enclosed 2008 "Scotty Dog" calendar as a token of appreciation from Air Liquide/Scott Specialty Gases.

Have a happy and safe holiday and a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Happy Holidays!
