We would like to deregister it. It has not been used for some time and parts are missing from it. There was recently a change in supervision so I would like to keep it just in case we can get it back to being operational and put someone through the course. The last certified members left the unit.

Can you please send a clarification email stating that you would like the instrument deregistered for evidential use. Once I receive that email from you I will forward it to my supervisor and a deregistration will be completed. Do you intend to relinquish the instrument all together or will your agency hold on to it. Thank you.

Good afternoon sir,

We will not be using our Intoxilyzer going forward.

Respectfully,

Marcos
