

LOOKING FOR A HIGH-TECH CAREER?

Then FDLE is Looking for You!

Do you have...

- Object oriented programming with emphasis in Java technologies?
- Web development, C++, HTML, ASP?
- Database development, preferably MS SQL Server and/or Oracle?
- Ability to gather and document requirements?
- Ability to create design documentation?
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills?
- Effective oral and written communication skills?

Hiring IT positions from entry-level to advanced!

Responsibilities include business analysis and programming to assist FDLE in:

- Identifying criminals using the latest biometric technology (fingerprints and palm prints);
- Storing and retrieving data, including criminal mug shots, missing persons and wanted persons images;
- Identifying and locating vulnerable and missing persons, wanted persons, and stolen property;
- Conducting background screenings for employment and firearms purchases;
- Investigating crimes;
- Protecting Florida's citizens and visitors; and
- Serving local law enforcement and the criminal justice community.

To be considered, please email your resume to Jobs@fdle.state.fl.us

To learn more about the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, visit our website at www.fdle.state.fl.us

To learn more about FDLE employment opportunities, visit www.fdle.state.fl.us/content/employment-information/employment-information.aspx

Applicants being considered for employment must pass a drug screen and background investigation which will include a financial credit check