

Officer Discipline
October 28 - 31, 2019
Renaissance Marriott World Golf Resort
500 South Legacy Trail
St. Augustine, FL 32092

Officer Discipline is (a 28 hour course) designed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the various aspects of management issues relating to officer misconduct, internal affairs investigations, and the discipline process. An effective officer discipline process requires a credible investigation conducted without bias and in accordance with professional practices, agency policy, and current laws. Using a combination of lecture and case studies, Officer Discipline delivers useful information for evaluating agency policies and procedures, as well as defining the role of the agency chief executive, the internal affairs investigator, police unions, and the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC) in the discipline process.

Concepts such as: officer misconduct, complaint acceptance, model policies, administration of positive (corrective rather than punitive) discipline, LEO/CO Bill of Rights, the role of police unions, Garrity, management of internal affairs investigations, reporting requirements of the CJSTC, and trending issues will all be discussed.

Comments from past attendees

“One of the best presentations of the officer discipline process I have ever attended . . . helped me to re-evaluate our procedures and make corrections.”

“. . . this course was very well planned and organized. Information will be used to revise policies and procedures in my agency.”

“The systematic approach was great. It gave great knowledge of how to make sure the process is carried out correctly. “

“This class will help me improve my department’s IA process and to write policies and procedures with current court decisions as guidelines”.

Instructors:

Jay Romine began his career with the Holmes Beach Police Department as a part-time patrol officer in 1979. Since that time, he served as a patrol officer, patrol sergeant, detective sergeant, lieutenant, assistant chief of police and served as the chief of police from July 1993 until his retirement in January of 2013. In May of 2013, Mr. Romine was appointed as the Director of the Law Enforcement Academy at Manatee Technical College in Bradenton, FL, where he continues to serve.

George Perez has been a law enforcement officer for nearly 20 years, serving the Miami-Dade Police Department (MDPD), and the citizens of Miami-Dade County. Since joining the MDPD, he has been assigned to the Professional Compliance Bureau, Homicide Bureau, the Homicide Bureau Street Violence Taskforce, General Investigations Unit. Other assignments included the Robbery Bureau, and general investigations within a patrol district. Earlier this year, Mr. Perez was promoted to Chief of the South Operations Division, which is comprised of six police districts and a staff of more than 700 law enforcement officers.

Paul A. Villaverde is a law enforcement supervisor with the Miami-Dade Police Department, (MDPD). He has served the citizens of Miami-Dade County for more than 24 years. Sergeant Villaverde has worked and supervised in many of the elite bureaus within MDPD. Some of his assignments include the Professional Compliance Bureau (Internal Affairs), Homicide Bureau, Robbery Bureau, Narcotics Bureau, Warrants Bureau, and Crime Suppression Team within the MDPD Police Services. Sergeant Villaverde currently supervises the MDPD Homicide Bureau Cold Case Unit, and is an active member of the Special Response Hostage Negotiator Team.
