Meeting Minutes

Meeting/Conference Call

June 26, 2025

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

- President Tucker asks Treasurer Jones if he judges that the Foundation has made enough to cover this year's expected expenses; Treasurer Jones estimates that that is the case.
- Vice President Previtera mentions Operation Dragon's Eye in South Florida, which recovered several missing children and trafficking victims. He mentions trying to solicit a donation from Chief Anthony Holloway from St. Petersburg Police Department. Ms. Peoples explains that Chief Holloway is a member of the MEPIC Advisory Board and is very involved.
- Ms. Peoples mentions that we have received a donation via Wix of $500 from the Florida Department of Agriculture. Treasurer Jones requests that we send him a budgeting plan for him to work from.

FMCD Contract Update

- Ms. Peoples explains that FDLE legal has been working on the contract for the audio. She provides the Mission BBQ quote of roughly $8,000.
- She confirms that FASRO will cover the reception.
- Purchases have been made for padded award folders, lanyards, stickers, and invitations. Invitations are expected to go out at the end of this week.
- Vice President Previtera asks for a motion to approve the contracts as proposed. Chief Kinsey moves for the Foundation to accept them; President Tucker seconds the motion. The Foundation votes in favor and the motion carries.

2025 FMCD Award Winners

- All categories have been filled except for the Young Hero Award.
- MEPIC Advisory Board voted on several large teams, included a team for the Commissioner's Award and the John and Reve Walsh Award. Ms. Peoples has spoken with her FDLE Command Staff, and it has been decided that only one physical glass award will be given for these large teams, but each team member will receive an award folder.

Other Business

- Chief Kinsey announces his resignation from the Foundation effective July 1, and introduces Chief Jeff Devlin of Hollywood Police Department as a possible replacement.
- Mr. Scott Champagne, Lieutenant Colonel with Broward County Sheriff's Office, has also volunteered to join the Foundation. Both will need to be approved for appointment by the Commissioner of FDLE.

Adjournment

- Meeting adjourns at 1:33 PM.
