TRAINING CENTER DIRECTORS' ASSOCIATION REMARKS

Director Rick Davis of the North Florida College Public Safety Academy provided the following report from the Training Center Directors Association's (TCDA) business meeting held on August 13, 2025.

Introduction of New Directors — Director Dr. Charles Eades of the College of Central Florida Criminal Justice Institute; Director Felipe Alicea of the Northeast Florida Criminal Justice Center; Director Albert Guerra of the Miami-Police Training Center; and Director Jason Pearson of the Valencia College Criminal Justice Institute.

Funding Issues — Director Davis updated the commission regarding the Master Credentials List (MCL) for corrections and stated it has been resolved.

New Course — The recommendation was made for a new 40-hour communications and manipulations course to be created.

High Liability Committee — currently reviewing the vehicle operations course, and any updates will be presented at the October CJSTC meeting. He continued to say that High Liability Committee stays very busy reviewing the high liability courses and makes sure everything in Florida is up to date.

2025 Coordinators Conference — the coordinators conference is scheduled the week of October 8 – 10, 2025 at Polk State College.

AGENDA ITEM 1: CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROFESSIONALISM, STANDARDS, AND TRAINING SERVICES (CJPSTS)

Director Chad Brown provided the Commission with information regarding Division and legislative initiatives.

CJST Trust Fund Revenue Report Update — Director Brown stated that the Fiscal Year 2025-2026 operating budget is 18.65 million between general revenue and the CJSTC Trust Fund. Director Brown reminded the commission that the trust fund provides salary dollars for staff, and all other expenditures are from the general revenue. The operating budget allotted by the legislature for officer training the fiscal years is $6.4 million or $78.56 for each of the states 81, 957 full-time officers. This allocation is less than the $80 per officer in place for Fiscal Year 2018 – 2019. The legislative allocation was reduced several years ago, but the budget effects were not realized during the COVID-19 years due to the decrease in the number of officers. Director Brown indicated that FDLE has drafted a legislative budget request for the next session to restore the allocation to $80 for each officer. This request will be based on the updated officer projections.

Legislative Updates — Director Brown gave updates on Senate Bill 108. He stated that Senate Bill 108 passed, amending the Administrative Procedures Act rulemaking process. This change impacts the development and management of all Florida Administrative Code rules, including those pertaining to CJSTC. He stated that this will require a review of all administrative rules within the next five years, and every five years thereafter.

Division Name — Director Brown gave an update to the commission that the names of division, bureaus and sections have changed based on an agency wide evaluation. The Criminal Justice Professionalism Division is now known as the Criminal Justice Professionalism, Standards and Training Services. The name change gives clarity to what the division is and how it operates every day; it also makes the division's name similar to the names of other states' P.O.S.T.

Division Updates — Director Brown introduced Government Analyst II Chris Scarpinati as the newest member of Field Services.

Alcohol Testing Program (ATP) Update — Senior Management Supervisor Shayla Platt updated the commission on the Intoxilyzer 9000. She stated that FDLE is purchasing 520 instruments, and the first 110 instruments will be assigned to the training centers. The first breath test instructor course will be from December 1 – 5, 2025, at the Southwest Florida Public Service Academy followed by a course from January 26 – 30, 2026, at FDLE in Tallahassee.

The course will teach current instructors how to teach students to use the Intoxilyzer 9000. The course will grant instructors the following instructor permits: breath test operator, agency inspector, and breath test instructor. These permits will allow instructors to teach courses statewide. During the training courses, they will be able to take home the instruments that will be utilized at the training centers, enabling them to begin training immediately. Beginning in February, notifications regarding training deadlines will be distributed to all agencies to inform them of the timeline for receiving their Intoxilyzer 9000, including when they need to have personnel trained to receive devices. Ms. Platt stated that they anticipate the instrument going into evidential use around July or August 2026, stating that date if very fluid because it's dependent on the completion of the infrastructure needed for the instruments to be able to upload data.

Comments: Commissioner Pearson asked if Ms. Platt had the list of agencies that would receive the first instruments. She advised that she did not have the list currently; however, state agencies are at the top of the list. Agencies like Florida Highway Patrol and FWC will get them first, and then all other agencies will receive them. Chairman Ford asked if she would email the list to staff, so it can be distributed to the commission.

Trust Fund Revenue Update — Bureau Chief Brett Kirkland offered the commission an update on the trust fund revenue streams and the newly created annual CJST Trust Fund Revenue Report description. He provided a document to the commission members that addressed previous inquiries related to the source of revenue for the trust fund. The document provided a summary of the trust fund's background, which was established 1976 under subsection 943.25, F.S. He noted that the trust fund revenue can be categorized by either court costs and fines related to traffic violations or revenue generated from interest in the trust fund. Additionally, he highlighted the effect of House Bill 657, which was signed into law during the 2023 legislative session. It opened an additional revenue source with the implementation of the new school speed zones, resulting in an increase of almost $900,000 into the total revenue and trust fund. It is anticipated that this trend will continue as the new speed cameras are implemented in school zones statewide.

Comments: Commissioner Bage asked about the decrease in revenue and funding. He asked if the amount per officer decreased because there are more officers in the state and what is causing the deficit in the trust fund. Bureau Chief Kirkland stated that the officer funding comes from a different source. The legislature approves officer funding through a different revenue stream, and they are two separate categories.

AGENDA ITEM 2: CRIMINAL JUSTICE STANDARDS AND TRAINING TRUST FUND AUDIT RECOMMENDATIONS: REGIONS III, AND XV FOR FISCAL YEAR 2023-2024

Bureau Chief Glen Hopkins presented this agenda item to the Commission and provided the trust fund revenue audit recommendations. Bureau Chief Hopkins also acknowledged four perfect audits presented on Wednesday, August 13, 2025.

1. Section 943.25(4), F.S., requires that the Commission establish, implement, supervise, and evaluate the expenditures of the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Trust Fund for Commission-approved advanced and specialized training program courses.

UNAGENDAED ITEMS

Matthew Sharp from the Criminal Justice Excellence section provided an overview of the comparison of academic and agency-based law enforcement training programs from the Commission meeting held on February 6, 2025. He mentioned that the factors outlined in the report encompassed the total number of participants in the training program, the number of participants who successfully completed the training, as well as those who attempted the State Officer Certification Exam, and whether they passed it. Additionally, for those who passed, he analyzed whether they secured employment in the field for which they received training. He noted that they had received expressions of interest from the Commission following their presentation for comparison of candidate quality from academic and agency-based programs. He also indicated that while candidate quality is subjective in nature, they do intend to provide the Commission with data related to service time from initial employment, reason for separation from the occupation (terminated, voluntary separation, etc.), and lastly, counts for officer discipline cases on candidates stemming from academic and agency-based training programs. The objective of this report was to provide the commission members with information to draw inferences on candidate quality. They intend to present updated information during the CJSTC meeting scheduled for October.

Bureau Chief Glen Hopkins spoke to the commission regarding the $117 thousand dollar deficit in the trust fund allocation for fiscal year 2024 – 2025, which required the training schools to prepare new budgets. The new budget requests will be presented to the Commission for approval during the October 30, 2025, CJSTC meeting.

Bureau Chief Glen Hopkins also mentioned that there are two more agencies that will petition the commission to become CJSTC training schools. The agencies intend to submit their requests in October. The needs assessments are planned for the week of September 8, 2025. The requests come from the Orlando Police Department and the Orange County Sheriff's Office.

Officer Training: Basic Recruit Training Programs for Special Operations Forces

ISSUE

This agenda item is presented to the Commission to request approval of the updated basic recruit training programs for special operations forces.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. Under s. 943.10, F.S., certain special operations forces members can receive credit toward criminal justice certification based on their military service. Members who served for a minimum of 5 years and have no more than a 4-year break in special operations forces experience can apply for exemption from basic recruit training. The employing agency, training center, or criminal justice selection center must verify and document the applicant's experience and training and submit documentation that the applicant satisfies the requirements to the Commission. The Commission may require an exempt applicant to complete additional training, as it deems appropriate, based on the applicant's prior training experience.

2. Section 943.131, F.S., reads, "Within 1 year after receiving an exemption, an applicant who is exempt from completing the Commission-approved basic recruit training program must:

   a. Complete all additional required training as required by the Commission.

   b. Demonstrate proficiency in the high-liability areas as defined by Commission rule.

   c. Complete the requirements of s. 943.13(10), F.S."

3. There are three programs for special operations forces that outline specific courses members need to take and the high liability areas in which they must demonstrate proficiency.

4. The programs have minor updates to reflect any legislative changes or corrections to the curricula in 2025.

RECOMMENDATION(s): Commission staff recommends the Commission approve the new and updated special operations forces programs with an effective date of July 1, 2026:

Approval of the revision of Advanced Course, #1138, Violent Crime Investigator Training Course

ISSUE

This agenda item is presented to the Commission to request approval of the revision of Advanced Course, #1138, Violent Crime Investigator Training Course.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. The Commission is responsible for maintaining advanced training program courses for Commission-certified law enforcement, correctional, and correctional probation officers. Courses in the Advanced Training Program may be delivered using Criminal Justice Standards and Training Officer Training Trust Fund Monies.

2. Every year, several law enforcement officers throughout Florida attend and complete the 40-hour Advanced Course, #1138, Violent Crime Investigator Training Course. The training was developed years ago and needed a revision. Therefore, Commission staff decided to update the course to ensure that Florida law enforcement officers receive the most current training on how to investigate violent crimes.

3. Commission staff worked with subject matter experts (SMEs) to update the curriculum to reflect contemporary methods and best practices for investigating violent crimes in the State of Florida. The SME workgroup also developed a series of optional and mandatory activities to help officers understand when to issue a search warrant, ask for a consent to search, and give a Miranda warning. While this course addresses how to investigate violent crimes, it can also be used to teach general investigative practices.

RECOMMENDATION(s): Commission staff recommends the Commission to approve the updated 40-hour Advanced Course, #1138, Violent Crime Investigator Training Course in the Advanced Training Program with an effective date of October 30, 2025.

VOTING IMPACT

CONSEQUENCES OF A "YES" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: A "yes" vote shall make available the updated officer training on violent crime investigations.

Request for Variance or Waiver: Request for a Waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C., by Director John E. McLaughlin of the South Florida State College Criminal Justice Academy

ISSUE

This agenda item is presented to the Commission by Director John E. McLaughlin to request a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. Petitioner is seeking a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C., and wishes to waive that portion of the rule that states: "A basic recruit student shall be given the opportunity for one additional attempt at the required demonstration of proficiency skill(s), or one re-examination of required written end-of-course examination in DUI Traffic Stops and each of the four high-liability topics of firearms, vehicle operations, defensive tactics, and first aid. A basic recruit student, who has failed to pass the end-of-course examination or the required demonstration of the proficiency skill(s) after a second attempt, shall be deemed to have failed the training course."
2. Petitioner requests waiver of the rule for four specified individuals, namely Amy Varrone, Ariana Flowers, Arisbeth Moya-Hernandez, and Margarita Williams.
3. During a routine audit, it was discovered that the above-listed corrections recruits were allowed more than one additional attempt at the required demonstration of certain firearms proficiency skills and to retake the firearms end-of-course examination in violation of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C. These students were allowed to take the state examination and passed and have since been placed in Temporary Employment Authorization status (TEA).
4. Petitioner cites to fairness and substantial hardship on behalf of the students, as this error was made on part of the instructors, not the students, and the students cannot return to full duty status without approval of the rule waiver.
5. Petitioner has not previously requested a similar waiver.

RECOMMENDATION(S): Commission staff recommends that the Commission GRANT the petition for a waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a).

VOTING IMPACT

CONSEQUENCES OF A "YES" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Director McLaughlin's request for a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C., shall be granted and the above-listed corrections recruits will be eligible to return to full duty status.

CONSEQUENCES OF A "NO" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Director McLaughlin's request for a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0024(2)(a), F.A.C., shall not be granted and the above-listed corrections recruits will not be eligible to return to full duty status.

Section 120.542, F.S., Variances and Waivers, mandates threshold proofs and notice provisions for variances and waivers from agency rules. Subsection (2) of this statute states:

Variances and waivers shall be granted when the person subject to the rule demonstrates that the purpose of the underlying statute will be or has been achieved by other means by the person and when application of a rule would create a substantial hardship or would violate principles of fairness. For purposes of this section, “substantial hardship” means a demonstrated economic, technological, legal, or other type of hardship to the person requesting the variance or waiver. For purposes of this section, “principles of fairness” are violated when the literal application of a rule affects a particular person in a manner significantly different from the way it affects other similarly situated persons who are subject to the rule.

Subject: Petition for a Waiver of Rule 11B35.0024 (2)(A)

Date: August 8, 2025

A routine audit by field representative Dawn Radick on 7-24-25 revealed the below listed items.

Corrections recruit Amy Varrone failed 1st attempt of two firearms attempts on proficiency skills during the "one handed shooting" block and then passed on the second attempt of these skills (but no remediation skills were attached. Then recruit Varrone failed the written and end of course exam but then was allowed a retake in violation of rule 11B-35 0024(2)(A).

In addition field representative Radick identified 3 additional correctional recruits failed the 1st attempt of firearms proficiency. The three students Ariana Flowers, Arisbeth Moya-Hernandez, and Margarita Williams were allowed to retake the end of course exam and passed in violation of rule 11B-350024(2)(A).

These students were then allowed to take the state exam and all passed. After a review by field representative Dawn Radick. All four students were required to repeat the firearms block from 8-4-25 thru 8-15-25. All students were contacted along with their employers and advised the would be placed in TEA status.

The four students returned to the South Florida State College and completed again the firearms block without issues.

Rule: 11B-35 0024(2)(A).Firearms Block Rule Violation
Statute: Section 943.17(1) (g) F.S.-"Basic recruit, advanced, and career development training programs: participation; cost; evaluation."
Overview: Recruit trainees were allowed to continue in academy and given retake of exams in violation of rule.
Pertinent Rule/ Statute: Rule 11B-35 0024(2)(A).states:

(1) Students enrolled in a Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program, Instructor Training Courses, or Specialized or Advanced Training Course shall qualify through demonstration of proficiency skill(s) in the applicable course(s) and pass a written end-of-course examination.

(2)(a) A basic recruit student shall be given the opportunity for one additional attempt at the required demonstration of proficiency skill(s), or one re-examination of required written end-of-course examination in DUI Traffic Stops and each of the four high-liability topics of firearms, vehicle operations, defensive tactics, and first aid. A basic recruit student, who has failed to pass the written end-of-course examination or the required demonstration of the proficiency skill(s) after a second attempt, shall be deemed to have failed the training course.

Facts: Affected Recruits:
Amy Varrone
Ariana Flowers
Arisbeth Moya-Herandez
Margarita Williams
Relevant Considerations Include:

- Rule requires students who fail any portion of the firearms block only one make up
- The students should have made up the entire block before taking the state exam
- The students were placed in TEA status and are still in this status unless a rule waiver is approved

- The students have since retaken the entire block seek to return to full duty as of August 15, 2025, when all students completed the firearms block.

Fairness:

The error was on part of the instructor and not on the students

The students have all made up the block and seek to return to full duty status

Section 120.542 F.S., "Variances and Waivers", states in part: "...Variances and waivers shall be granted when the person subject to the rule demonstrates that the purpose of the underlying statute has been achieved by other means...."

Hardship:

Students cannot return to full duty status without the rule waiver approval.

Action:

I am requesting that the rule waiver be approved so the students can return to full duty.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Toward the end of the academy, it was discovered that Mr. Cusick had not completed a law enforcement Commission-approved BAT as required. Upon this discovery, Mr. Cusick completed and passed the CJBAT on August 13, 2025, which occurred immediately prior to his completion of the academy on August 15, 2025.
4. Petitioner cites to fairness on behalf of Mr. Cusick, as the events that occurred after Mr. Cusick passing the CJBAT have rendered the prerequisite set forth in Rule 11B-35.0011(1) as moot. Petitioner also cites to hardship on behalf of Mr. Cusick, as he will not be able to proceed with his sponsorship with the Hardee County Sheriff's Office and will not be allowed to take the state law enforcement examination.
5. Petitioner has not previously requested a similar waiver.

RECOMMENDATION(S): Commission staff recommends that the Commission GRANT the petition for a waiver of Rule 11B-35.0011(1), F.A.C.

VOTING IMPACT

CONSEQUENCES OF A "YES" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Mr. Laughlin's request for a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0011(1), F.A.C., shall be granted and Mr. Cusick will retain his sponsorship with the Hardee County Sheriff's Office and will be allowed to complete the state law enforcement examination.

CONSEQUENCES OF A "NO" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Mr. McLaughlin's request for a temporary waiver of Rule 11B-35.0011(1), F.A.C., shall not be granted and Mr. Cusick will lose his sponsorship with the Hardee County Sheriff's Office and will not be allowed to complete the state law enforcement examination.

(1) Basic Abilities Test. To comply with Section 943.17(1)(g), F.S., applicants who apply for entry into a Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program after January 1, 2002, shall obtain a passing score on a Commission-approved Basic Abilities Test (BAT) for the law enforcement or correctional disciplines, prior to entering a program. However, a person is not required to take the BAT before entering a law enforcement officer Basic Recruit Training Program if he or she is a veteran as defined in Section 1.01 (14), F.S., or holds an associate degree or higher from an accredited college or university if applying on or after July 1, 2022. The BAT shall be administered in the State of Florida.

Variances and waivers shall be granted when the person subject to the rule demonstrates that the purpose of the underlying statute will be or has been achieved by other means by the person and when application of a rule would create a substantial hardship or would violate principles of fairness. For purposes of this section, “substantial hardship” means a demonstrated economic, technological, legal, or other type of hardship to the person requesting the variance or waiver. For purposes of this section, “principles of fairness” are violated when the literal application of a rule affects a particular person in a manner significantly different from the way it affects other similarly situated persons who are subject to the rule.

Reference: Petition for Waiver of Rule Pertaining to Basic Abilities Test Requirement
Rule:11B35.0011(1)- Basic Abilities Test Requirement for Applicant Admission into a Law Enforcement and Correctional Training Program
Statute: Section 943.17(1) (g) F.S.-"Basic recruit, advanced, and career development training programs: participation; cost; evaluation."
Overview: Recruit William Cusick was a sponsored recruit from Hardee County Sheriff attending the South Florida State College Police Academy. Toward the end of the academy, it was determined that the recruit had not completed his Law Enforcement CJBAT.
Upon this determination recruit Cusick was scheduled and took the CJBAT exam and passed. Since he took and passed the CJBAT after his academy and not before he was in violation. For these reasons a rule waiver is requested.
Pertinent Rule/ Statute: Rule 11B-35.0011 states:

(1) Basic Abilities Test. To comply with Section 943.17(1)(g), F.S., applicants who apply for entry into a Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program after January 1, 2002, shall obtain a passing score on a Commission-approved Basic Abilities Test (BAT) for law enforcement or correctional disciplines, prior to entering the program. The BAT shall be administrated in the State of Florida.
(h) A passing score on a commission approved Basic Abilities Test is valid for 4 years from the date of the test.
Section 943.17(1)(g) (attached) states

(1) The commission shall:
(g) Assure that entrance into the basic recruit training program for law enforcement and correctional officers be limited to those who have passed a basic skills examination assessment, based on a job task analysis in each discipline and adopted by the commission.

Facts: Affected Recruit is William Cusick.
The chronology of this case is as follows:
April 7, 2025: Hired by Hardee County as Sheriff Deputy Recruit
August 11, 2025: Informed by academy of missing CJBAT
August 13, 2025: Passed the CJBAT
August 15, 2025: Graduation from Academy

Relevant Considerations Include:

- The CJBAT is a prerequisite for entering the academy
- He demonstrated the ability to attend and pass the Basic Recruit Academy
- He was accepted into the academy without a current BAT score
- He subsequently passed the CJBAT LEO 1
- He is currently unable to move forward with scheduling the State Law Enforcement Exam

Fairness:

Events subsequent to William Cusick passing the CJBAT appear to have rendered the prerequisite moot.

Section 120.542 F.S., "Variances and Waivers", states in part: "...Variances and waivers shall be granted when the person subject to the rule demonstrates that the purpose of the underlying statute has been achieved by other means...."

Hardship:

William Cusick will not be able to proceed with his sponsorship with Hardee County and take the State Law Enforcement Exam.

Action:

I am requesting that the rule requiring the CJBAT be taken and passed as a prerequisite before entering a basic law enforcement academy be waived in order to to take the State exam.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

TO: Whom it may concern

FROM: Gerard Pierre Jr

SUBJECT: Petition for Waiver or Variance of Florida Administrative Rule 11B-27.002(4)

I, Gerard Pierre Jr, am penning this letter as a respectful petition to the Commission, seeking a permanent waiver or variance of Rule 11B-27.002(4). I graduated from the College of the Florida Keys Institute for Public Safety and I am appealing to the rule that states within four years of commencing a Commission-approved basic Recruit Training program, an individual should successfully complete the program, pass the applicable state officer Certification Examination, gain employment, and secure certification as an officer. Although I completed this course in March 2021 at the College of the Florida Keys Institute for Public Safety, I was unable to secure employment before the expiry date of May 12, 2023.

1. As a Florida citizen, I, Gerard Pierre Jr, am currently am offered employment with the City of Opa-Locka Police Department in the capacity of a reserve Police Officer after going through all the hiring steps successfuly..
2. I successfully achieved a passing score on the State Officer Certification Examination on March 15, 2023.
3. Amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, I faced significant challenges both personally and professionally. The onset of the pandemic considerably disrupted the scheduling and accessibility of the SOCE exams, while concurrent family issues demanded my full attention, diverting my focus away from my career aspirations. The combined impact of these pressures made it exceptionally challenging for me to complete the police academy process within the stipulated four-year window.
4. Nevertheless, I am confident in my extensive experience and dedication, which I believe will significantly contribute to the agency if granted a waiver and subsequent employment.
5. Denial of this waiver would result in severe economic hardship for me. This hardship stems not only from the potential loss of income but also from the fact that I have invested my personal time and resources into attending the Police Academy. Without this waiver, I would be forced to undergo another round of training, attending an ENTIRE Basic Recruit Class again, incurring more time and expenses, which would impose further economic hardship. Moreover, this would delay my employment commencement at the Opa-Locka Police Department.
6. I hereby request a twelve -month period from the date the Commission votes on this issue, to complete the employment process and secure my certification as a Law Enforcement Officer with the Opa-Locka Police Department.

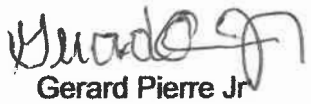
RECEIVED
AUG 26 2025
BY: .....

7. Therefore, I, Gerard Pierre Jr, respectfully implore the Commission to grant a permanent waiver or variance of Rule 11B-27.002(4), thereby allowing my appointment by the Opa-Locka Police Department to a position as a certified law enforcement officer within 30 days of the hearing of this Petition. Granting this requested waiver would align with the purpose of the statute the rule is implementing, as outlined in FS120.54(5)(b).

Law Implemented: 943.12(3), 943.13, 943.133, 943.139, 943.1395 FS.

Granting the variance of the waiver requested would uphold the purpose of the underlying statute, ensuring all new hires are appropriately trained.

Respectfully submitted,



Gerard Pierre Jr

AGENDA ITEM: 5A

Request for Denial of Basic Abilities Test for Leslie McCall

ISSUE

Section 943.17(1)(g), F. S., requires that applicants entering a Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program pass a Basic Abilities Test (BAT) for the discipline in which training is sought. Further, Rule 11B-35.0011, F.A.C., details misconduct relating to the Basic Abilities Test and the appropriate disciplinary action for such misconduct. This issue addresses alleged misconduct on the part of Leslie McCall.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. The Automated Training Management System (ATMS) records reflect that Ms. McCall is not currently a certified officer or an applicant for certification, pages 4-5.
2. On June 23, 2025, Leslie McCall took and failed the Correctional Basic Abilities Test at Florida Gateway College.
3. Ms. McCall provided Florida Department of Corrections with documentation indicating that she had passed the Correctional Basic Abilities Test at Florida Gateway College on June 23, 2025, page 7.
4. The documentation provided by Ms. McCall to the Florida Department of Corrections, indicating a passing BAT score, was an apparent forgery and was an attempt on her part to gain entry into the Correctional Officer Basic Recruit Training Program under false pretenses.
5. Documentation provided indicates that the test results from Ms. McCall's June 23, 2025, test were altered to reflect a passing score for Ms. McCall on I/O Solutions Correctional Basic Abilities Test on June 23, 2025, pages 7-13.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: June 26, 2025

TO: Bureau Chief Ashley K. Pennington, CJP/Bureau of Training

FROM: Exam Development Manager Jack Owens
Research & Assessment Section

SUBJECT: Basic Abilities Test Candidate Leslie McCall

On June 25, 2025, Human Resource Specialist Faith Morse from the Florida Department of Corrections (FDC) contacted FDLE about a discrepancy between a Basic Abilities Test (BAT) score report they received from Leslie McCall and Ms. McCall's ATMS profile. The score report submitted to FDC reflects a "Pass" received on 6/23/25 for the BAT for correctional officers. However, ATMS reflected that Ms. McCall had received a BAT result of "Fail" on that date.

On June 25, 2025, I reviewed ATMS and Pearson VUE's internal system, IntelliVUE, and it was determined that the candidate had taken and failed the BAT for corrections on 6/23/25.

I reached out to Pearson VUE program manager Chris Russo and requested a copy of the candidate's BAT Candidate Feedback Report. It also indicated that the candidate received a result of "Fail" on 6/23/25. I also requested a statement from FDC, describing their interactions with the candidate.

Based on the discrepancies in the score report submitted by Ms. McCall to FDC and the investigations conducted by both FDLE and Pearson VUE, it appears that Ms. McCall falsified her BAT score report in a willful attempt to circumvent the requirements to pass the BAT as outlined in section 943.17(1)(g), Florida Statutes. Such action not only threatens the integrity of the BAT, but also calls into question the good moral character that is required for employment or appointment as an officer pursuant to Section 943.13(7), F.S. Therefore, I recommend this case be forwarded to the Professional Compliance Section for further review and action.

Good day,

On June 25, 2025 at approximately 11:45 AM the QA Auditor Nayashia Jones brought to my attention that applicant Leslie Mccall had provided the CJBAT scoresheet showing that she had passed the test on June 23, 2025. However, when Nayashia and I checked ATMS to verify the system showed that she had actually failed the CJBAT at which time I notified Faith Morse, our contact on the ATMS team for further verification.

If I can be of any further assistance, please let me know.

AGENDA ITEM: 5B

Request for Denial of Basic Abilities Test for Glenn Huggins

ISSUE

Section 943.17(1)(g), F. S., requires that applicants entering a Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program pass a Basic Abilities Test (BAT) for the discipline in which training is sought. Further, Rule 11B-35.0011, F.A.C., details misconduct relating to the Basic Abilities Test and the appropriate disciplinary action for such misconduct. This issue addresses alleged misconduct on the part of Glenn Huggins.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. Glenn Huggins took the Law Enforcement Basic Abilities Test at Broward College in Davie, Florida, on September 4, 2012, and failed the test.
2. Broward College received a report indicating Huggins passed the BAT exam on October 13, 2021. However, ATMS reflected that Huggins had not taken any BAT exams since September 4, 2012, pages 4-5.
3. Training and Research Manager Jack Owens wrote a memorandum describing the incident (page 6). He attached documentation from Broward College documenting the discrepancies, page 6.
4. The documentation provided by Mr. Huggins to Broward College indicating a passing BAT score was an apparent forgery and was an attempt on his part to gain entry into the Law Officer Basic Recruit Training Program under false pretenses.
5. Documentation was provided which indicates that the test results from Mr. Huggins' September 4, 2012, test were altered to reflect a passing score for Mr. Huggins on the Correctional Basic Abilities Test on October 13, 2021. pages 7-23.
6. ATMS records reflect that Mr. Huggins is not currently a certified officer or an applicant for certification, pages 4-5.

RECOMMENDATION(s): Commission staff recommends that the Commission find that probable cause exists, that Glenn Huggins did engage in conduct that subverted or attempted to subvert the Basic Abilities Test Process, and direct Commission staff to: (1) Nullify all Basic Abilities Test scores for all tests taken after September 4, 2012; and (2) issue Mr. Huggins a letter of intent to deny which would prohibit him from taking a Basic Abilities Test for any discipline for a period of five years from the date of the final order, pursuant to Rule 11B-35.0011(5), F.A.C.; and

CONSEQUENCES OF A "YES" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Commission staff will issue a letter of intent to deny and associated election of rights form to Glenn Huggins, who would be banned from taking a Basic Abilities Test for five-years following the issuance of a final order.

CONSEQUENCES OF A "NO" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Glenn Huggins will not be banned from taking a Basic Abilities Test and upon passage would be allowed entry into a Correctional Officer Basic Recruit Training Program.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 10, 2025

TO: Bureau Chief Ashley K. Pennington, CJP/Bureau of Training

FROM: Exam Development Manager Jack Owens
Research & Assessment Section

SUBJECT: Basic Abilities Test Candidate Glenn Huggins

On April 4, 2025, Director Wayne Boulier from Broward College contacted FDLE about a discrepancy between a Basic Abilities Test (BAT) score report he received from Glenn Huggins and Mr. Huggins' ATMS profile. The score report submitted to Broward College reflects a "Pass" received on 10/13/2021 for the BAT for law enforcement officers. However, ATMS reflected that Mr. Huggins had not taken a BAT for law enforcement on that date.

On April 7, 2025, I reviewed ATMS and it was determined that the candidate had taken and failed a law enforcement BAT on 9/4/2012, but no further exam entries were noted. I reviewed Pearson VUE's IntelliVUE system. Mr. Huggins did have a profile; however, he had not taken any exams since at least 2019 when Pearson became the sole vendor for the BAT.

I received the Broward College-specific BAT score report that Mr. Huggins submitted from Broward College Dean Robert Voss. Upon comparing the report submitted with ATMS, it does appear that the score report submitted to Broward College was altered to reflect an incorrect date and incorrect result.

Based on the discrepancies in the score report submitted by Mr. Huggins to Broward College and the investigations conducted by both FDLE and Broward College, it appears that Mr. Huggins falsified his BAT score report in a willful attempt to circumvent the requirements to pass the BAT as outlined in section 943.17(1)(g), Florida Statutes. Such action not only threatens the integrity of the BAT, but also calls into question the good moral character that is required for employment or appointment as an officer pursuant to Section 943.13(7), F.S. Therefore, I recommend this case be forwarded to the Professional Compliance Section for further review and action.

Jack,

I have attached some documents for your review...

- FDLE ATMS Profile for Glenn Huggins... shows the individual took the test on 9/4/2012 and failed...no other tests are noted under this profile
- Broward College Internal Applicant Test Results
  - We track, internally, the attempts and results of the CJBAT (BAT), BMST (PAT), and SWIM tests
  - This is the document that any applicant submits to the agency they are applying to...the agency then submits this document, along with the remaining registration documents in order to register for the police academy here at Broward College...It is this document that appears to have been altered
- IOS score sheet for individual showing a failed CJBAT from 9/4/12
- Internal Applicant Information Sheet, tracks CJBAT, BMST, and SWIM registrations and results
  - On this form you notice that the individual scored a 69 on the CJBAT test on 9/4/2012 and passed his BMST on 4/10/24

Looking at Document #2 (Broward College Internal Applicant Test Result) scores are displayed in dated order you can see where some of the text has been altered. In particular, observe the last column on the right (BMST/SWIM, pass/fail)...you notice that the two "PASS" results do not align vertically...in review of other incoming applicant documents, these "PASS" results align perfectly under each other. In addition, we have NO record of this individual attempting a BMST on 11/13/24. The date, as with the "PASS", issue appears to have been altered.

The CJBAT results listed from 10/13/21, as with the previous two instances, appears to have been altered. The LEO4 and particularly the score "74 PASS" does not align horizontally with the other items on the same line. Even more demining is the test score listed. A 74 in 2021 would have resulted in a failure, however in 2012, when this individual failed his CJBAT exam with a 69, the passing score was 70.

My conclusions are that this individual changed the date from 9/4/2012 to 10/13/21 so that he is within the four-year window and changed the score from a 69 to a 74. Additionally, I believe the individual changed the date of his last BMST from 4/10/24 to 11/13/24 so that he would be within the six-month window.

I hope you understand my explanation. I would be more than happy to discuss on a call if you would like..

Unfortunately not, given that Pearson was not the provider during that time. I could reach out to I/O Solutions directly and see if they have a record, but given that the retention schedule is four years, I'm guessing that they would not. Also, the BAT is only valid for four years, so even if the candidate had passed in 2012, it would have been invalid in 2016.

Did the candidate submit a BAT score report?

Good morning Jack...thank you

Does any record show of this individual taking the CJBAT on 9/4/2012? His ATMS shows a failed attempt on that date?

Investigative Findings – Cadet Glenn Huggins (Class 368)
Date of Report: April 4, 2025

Background:
On April 4, 2025, a member of the IPS staff brought forward concerns regarding the paperwork submitted for an incoming Class 368 cadet, Glenn Huggins. The staff member identified discrepancies within the documentation, including potential alterations. Upon notification, I collected and reviewed all pertinent records associated with Cadet Huggins. My findings are outlined below.

Document #1 – Broward College IPS Applicant Test Results (Submitted Version)

- This document was submitted as part of Cadet Huggins' academy registration packet.
- The form is used to verify the validity and timeliness of required test scores, including the CJBAT, BMST, and SWIM assessments. (IPS policy requires CJBAT within 4 years and BMST within 6 months of academy start.)

Observed Issues:

1. Misalignment in BMST/SWIM Results Column:
   - Two "PASS" entries are shown: SWIM on 8/13/2012 and BMST on 11/13/2024.
   - The BMST entry is misaligned vertically compared to the SWIM entry.
   - A comparison with another cadet's form shows proper alignment, confirming this as an anomaly.
2. CJBAT Score Discrepancy:
   - The form lists a CJBAT score of "74 PASS" on 10/13/2021.
   - The font and alignment of this entry differ significantly from surrounding text.
   - The date also appears visually altered.
   - A search of historical test data found no record of Huggins taking the CJBAT on this date.
3. BMST Entry Dated 11/13/2024:
   - This date also appears altered.
   - No records exist to confirm Huggins' participation in the BMST on 11/13/2024.
   - Roster sheets, medical clearance forms, and score reports for that date do not include his name.

Document 1A – Enlarged View of Document #1

- Provides clearer evidence of font and alignment inconsistencies between entries, particularly in the BMST and CJBAT rows.

Document 1B – Original (Unedited) IPS Test Results

- Retrieved from Huggins' Broward College account by the college IT department.
- Key discrepancies compared to the submitted version:
  - The original shows a CJBAT attempt on 9/4/2012, failed with a score of 69.
  - The "74 PASS" CJBAT score and 10/13/2021 test date do not exist in the unedited version.
  - The BMST date listed is not 11/13/2024, further confirming it was likely altered.

Document #2 – ATMS Profile

- Reflects only one CJBAT attempt for Huggins: 9/4/2012 (FAILED).
- No record exists for a CJBAT on 10/13/2021.
- FDLE's Jack Owens confirmed no additional CJBAT records under Huggins' name.

Document #3 – IPS Internal Applicant Information

- Similar to Document #1 but with clear differences:
  - BMST and SWIM "PASS" entries are properly aligned.
  - CJBAT result listed is 69 (FAIL) on 9/4/2012.
  - No additional CJBAT test entries are shown.

Document #4 – IOS CJBAT Feedback Report

- Documents the 9/4/2012 CJBAT attempt, showing a failing score of 69.

Document #5 – Internal Score Report

- Confirms the same: a CJBAT score of 69 for Huggins on 9/4/2012.

Documents #6–#8 – Exam Rosters and Medical Forms (NOT ATTACHED DUE TO FERPA REGULATIONS)

- 3/27/2024: Huggins registered for BMST but did not attend; no score or medical clearance on file.
- 4/10/2024: Huggins was present and passed the BMST.
- 11/13/2024: Huggins was not registered, nor did he attend; no records exist.

Document #9 – CJBAT Roster Dated 9/4/2012 Forms (NOT ATTACHED DUE TO FERPA REGULATIONS)

- Confirms Huggins attempted the CJBAT on 9/4/2012.

Conclusion:

- Cadet Glenn Huggins failed the CJBAT on 9/4/2012 with a score of 69 (passing was 70).
- No record exists that he took or passed the CJBAT on 10/13/2021, as submitted in the altered form.
- The inserted score of "74 PASS" is problematic:
    - In 2021, the passing score was 80, not 70.
    - The score is not normally displayed on this form—only "PASS" or "FAIL"—suggesting fabrication.
    - The numerical score may have been altered based on the 2012 passing requirement.
- The BMST entry for 11/13/2024 was likely altered from 4/10/2024 to place it within the 6-month eligibility window for Class 368. However, Huggins did not attend any testing on 11/13/2024.
- Document #1, submitted by Miramar PD, was altered from its original version (Document #1B), as shown by:
    - Changed test dates
    - Inserted scores
    - Misaligned text
    - Font inconsistencies

Final Assessment:
There is compelling evidence that multiple entries on Cadet Glenn Huggins' IPS registration form were intentionally altered, including falsified test scores and manipulated test dates. These modifications appear designed to falsely demonstrate eligibility for academy entry under IPS testing guidelines.

Appropriate follow-up action is recommended.

Executive Summary

On July 23, 2025, the Orange County Sheriff's Office (OCSO) requested permission from the Region 7 Training Council to submit a Criminal Justice Training School Certification and Re-certification Application, form CJSTC 29 to the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission to request initial certification as a Commission-approved training school. The Region 7 Training Council voted to approve the request by OCSO. (Attachment 1)

On July 23, 2025, OCSO submitted a Criminal Justice Training School Certification and Re-certification Application, form CJSTC 29 to Commission staff for consideration by the Commission. (Attachment 2) The application is for Type B certification, which grants a training school the authority to deliver Law Enforcement Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program courses and Commission-approved Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses pursuant to Rule 11B-21.002(2)(b), Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).

Needs Analysis

Rule 11B-21.002(3)(b), F.A.C., requires Commission staff to conduct a needs analysis for the region or local training area to be serviced by a new training school. Rule further requires the Commission to deny an application for certification as a training school if a training need does not exist. Commission staff conducted a needs analysis from September 8 - 11, 2025. The assessment team consisted of Training and Research Manager Terry Baker and Field Representatives Shawn Fagan, Glenn Miller, and Chris Scarpinati. The needs analysis consisted of interviewing all agency administrators or designees of law enforcement agencies in Orange County as the local service area for OCSO; interviewing the training school director for Valencia College, Criminal Justice Institute (VC) and surveying the directors for the remaining seven training schools in Region 7; inspecting the OCSO classroom and high liability facilities to ensure compliance with Rules 11B-21.005(3)-(7), F.A.C., and reviewing the staffing requirements pursuant to Rule 11B-21.005(8), F.A.C. All interviews and surveys were conducted using standardized survey instruments for agencies and training schools respectively. (Attachment 3) The agency survey instrument questions were designed to capture information regarding the current agency size; predicted growth; officer training, both in-house and through CJSTC training centers; distances traveled for training; satisfaction with their current training centers; and discussion of the OCSO request. The training school survey instrument questions were designed to capture information regarding the recent training offered, number of courses, number of students, and discussion of the OCSO request.

Interview with Orange County Sheriff's Office

Commission staff interviewed Undersheriff Mark Canty along with members of his staff and completed the standard agency survey instrument. (Attachment 4) OCSO employs 1,765 law enforcement deputies. OCSO indicated that they anticipate having approximately 156 law enforcement vacancies and new positions over the next year. They further indicated that with the anticipated agency and population growth in Orange County, they expect to have 590 law enforcement vacancies between attrition from current positions and new positions added over the next five years.

OCSO indicated that they primarily use VC for their basic recruit training needs because it is the option available in Orange County and they have partnered with VC for over 30 years. They stated that it is approximately 11 miles from the OCSO headquarters to VC and typically takes about 20 minutes to drive there. OCSO indicated there is a variance in travel time depending on the time of day. OCSO indicated they have sponsored approximately 256 law enforcement recruits through VC for basic recruit training over the past two years and anticipate needing 590 recruits over the next five years.

OCSO indicated they primarily use VC for Commission-approved Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses but also use the other training schools in Region 7 as well. OCSO indicated its law enforcement deputies attended approximately 1,080 Advanced or Specialized Training Program Courses from 2023 through 2024. They anticipate this rate of training to continue for the next five years.

OCSO was asked if VC is meeting their current training needs for basic recruit training. They responded "No" to having their needs met for basic recruit training. OCSO indicated VC cannot provide enough seats to meet their hiring needs. They indicated they sent over 100 recruits to other training schools because VC did not have seats available when needed. OCSO further believes they will be able to incorporate their agency policies, procedures, and equipment into the basic recruit training to better prepare the recruits and provide a more agency-specific program. OCSO was asked if VC will be able to meet their training needs for basic recruit training over the next five years. They responded "No". OCSO explained they believe with their increasing recruitment needs; VC will not be able to keep up with their agency hiring demands.

OCSO was asked if VC is meeting their current training needs for post-basic training. They responded "Mostly" to having their needs met for post-basic training. OCSO indicated that they have requested that VC hold more high-demand Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses such as field training officer and instructor courses. This causes some officers to delay getting necessary training or travel greater distances to get the training, increasing the agency costs for the training. OCSO explained that they have a very good partnership with VC and intend to maintain that partnership.

Interview with the Valencia College, Criminal Justice Institute

Commission staff interviewed Dean Jeffrey Goltz and Director Jason Pearson and completed the standard training school survey instrument. (Attachment 5) VC currently holds Type A certification, which allows them to provide any Commission-approved training. Their certification is valid through June 30, 2030. VC uses their own facilities for defensive tactics and first aid academic training. They use the firearms range and driving range owned by OCSO for firearms and vehicle operations training. VC has satellite classroom and high liability sites at other locations within Region 7, including the Ocoee Police Department, OCSO, Orlando Police Department, and several private vendor locations.

According to the Automated Training Management System (ATMS), VC provided 14 law enforcement basic recruit programs, nine correctional basic recruit programs, seven cross-over basic recruit training programs and six equivalency of training programs from January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2024. VC had a total of 590 students graduate from law enforcement basic recruit programs, 194 students graduate from correctional basic recruit programs, 11 students graduate from cross-over basic recruit programs, and 80 students graduate from equivalency of training programs. OCSO does not employ recruits on Temporary Employment Authorizations, but transfers recruits from non-sworn positions to sworn positions when the recruit graduates from the basic recruit training and passes the State Officer Certification Examination. A review of ATMS records for this period reflects OCSO hired a total of 191 new deputies within one month of their graduation from basic recruit training with 134 of these graduating from VC. During this period, the average number of days between the recruit's graduation and the hire date for OCSO is nine days. (Attachment 6) Director Pearson indicated that approximately 49% of VC students are sponsored or employed by agencies while attending the basic recruit academy. VC provided 192 Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses during the same period with a total of 4,079 students completing these courses.

Dean Goltz and Director Pearson indicated that they believe there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7 and support the certification of OCSO as a training school. They indicated OCSO may have the ability to offer classes with fewer students and may be able to run classes more as needed rather than on a set schedule. They believe OCSO being about to train their officers will also free up space for self-sponsored students in the basic recruit training programs and seats in the Advanced/Specialized Training Program Courses for other agencies. They indicated VC will be able to handle the volume of Advanced/Specialized Training Program Courses for Region 7 and will be able to handle the basic recruit training needs of the other agencies in Orange County. Additionally, Dean Goltz provided a letter of support from the Valencia College Criminal Justice Institute and Dr. Kathleen Plinske, President of Valencia College provided a letter of support from Valencia College. (Attachment 7)

Agency Interviews

Commission staff interviewed the agency administrator or their designee for all Region 7 law enforcement employing agencies in Orange County and completed the standard agency survey instrument for each agency. Twelve agency administrators elected to participate in the interviews with designees being assigned for the remaining two agencies. In addition to OCSO, 14 additional agencies were interviewed. A summary of the results of these 14 additional agency interviews is reflected below. The completed survey instruments are attached for reference. (Attachment 8)

Of the 14 agencies interviewed, six indicated they primarily use VC for basic recruit training needs. Six agencies do not sponsor basic recruits, one agency uses the Criminal Justice Academy of Osceola, and one agency uses Lake Technical College Institute of Public Safety for their basic recruit training needs. Eleven agencies indicated their needs were being met for basic recruit training hiring basic recruits. Two agencies indicated they do not hire basic recruits. One agency indicated their needs were not being met for basic recruit training. The agency which indicated their needs were not being met indicated VC is unable to provide enough seats for their hiring needs each year. Three agencies indicated they would send recruits to OCSO to be trained if available and four indicated they would consider sending recruits to OCSO if the courses or training they needed were offered. Seven agencies indicated they would not send recruits to OCSO to be trained.

Thirteen of the agencies indicated they use VC for their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs but also use other Region 7 training schools frequently depending on the courses being offered and the agency needs. One agency indicated they primarily use Daytona State College School of Emergency Services. Eleven agencies indicated their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs were being met. Three agencies indicated their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs were mostly being met. Agencies which indicated their needs were mostly being met indicated courses fill up quickly and VC does not offer enough courses for high demand topics.

When the agency administrators or designees were asked if there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7, seven responded "Yes" and seven responded "No" to the question. None of the agencies were opposed to OCSO becoming a training school. Five agency administrators or designees felt that the addition of OCSO as a training school would open seats for smaller agencies and create another option for Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses. None of the agencies opposed OCSO's request.

Training School Interviews

Commission staff surveyed the training center directors from the seven remaining Commission-certified training schools in Region 7 using the standard training school survey instrument. A summary of the results of these seven training school surveys is reflected below. The completed survey instruments are attached for reference. (Attachment 9)

In addition to questions related to the number of courses offered and students trained by the training schools, the training school directors were asked if there was any reason for the Commission to either grant or deny the OCSO request and if there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7. While none of the directors were opposed to the OCSO request, one indicated no need existed for a new school, four indicated there is a need for a new school, and two indicated they did not have enough information to formulate an opinion as to if a need existed for Orange County. One director indicated the approval of OCSO's request would enhance the training access the region. One director expressed concerns of whether existing Commission staffing level is sufficient to adequately oversee, monitor, audit, and inspect training schools with the increase in the number of training schools. One director felt the existing training schools need to work better with agencies to meet their needs. ATMS data concerning the number of courses offered, types of courses offered, and number of students taught by all training schools in Region 7 is attached for reference. (Attachment 10)

Facility Inspections

The OCSO proposed facilities were inspected as required by Rule 11B-21.002(3)(b), F.A.C. OCSO owns their own firearms and driving ranges and will partner with VC to use VC's classrooms, defensive tactics, and first aid facilities. All meet the requirements and are documented on the appropriate forms. (Attachment 11)

Summary

Based on the interviews with the agency administrators or designees, 13 believe their training needs over the next five years will be met by their current training school. Based on information collected during the interviews, the total estimates of officers needed to fill positions from vacancies and agency growth over the next five years are:

Apopka Police Department	LE 20
City of Belle Isle Police Department	LE 1
Eatonville Police Department	LE 6
Edgewood Police Department	LE 0
Maitland Police Department	LE 15
Oakland Police Department	LE 15
Ocoee Police Department	LE 40
Orange County Public Schools District Police	LE 10
Orange County Sheriff's Office	LE 590
Orlando Police Department	LE 300
State Attorney's Office, Ninth Judicial Circuit	LE 2
University of Central Florida, University Police Department	LE 20
Windermere Police Department	LE 5

Winter Garden Police Department	LE 35
Winter Park Police Department	LE 10
Estimated Total	LE 1,069

Not all of these officers will be entering basic recruit classes. Certified officers will move from other agencies, both inside and outside of Orange County. Some officers will be from other states or the federal government and complete the Equivalency of Training process. VC indicated they can accommodate the anticipated growth in Orange County.

OCSO indicated having their own training school will allow them to more quickly address their hiring needs and allow them to better evaluate the recruits during training. They further indicated they would have the ability to incorporate their agency culture, equipment, policies, and procedures into the basic training allowing for their recruits to receive agency-specific training from the beginning of the basic recruit training. OCSO indicated they have sufficient instructors and facilities to host Advanced and Specialized Program Courses that fit their needs.

Having ethical, well-trained, and qualified law enforcement officers to serve the residents of the State of Florida is vital. There is support for OCSO to be approved as a Commission-certified training school from the agencies in Region 7 and no agency expressed opposition to their request. OCSO has the facilities and personnel in place to immediately conduct Commission-approved Law Enforcement Basic Recruit Training Programs, Advanced Training Program courses, and Specialized Training Program courses if approved by the Commission. If the OCSO request for certification as a training school is not approved, VC should be able to meet the immediate training needs within Region 7.

Recommendation

All the agencies interviewed supported the need for an additional training school in Region 7. Four training center directors indicated a need exists for an additional training school in Region 7 with the remaining three directors indicating no need exists or that they did not have enough information to provide an opinion. Director Pearson of VC indicated a need for a new training school in Region 7 exists. Based on the support of the Region 7 Training Council, VC, and lack of opposition to the request by agencies, Commission staff recommends the Commission find that a training need exists for the local training area intended to be serviced by OCSO and approve OCSO's request for certification as a training school.

SPS 227
Might wanna start over. Just so we catch everything.

- All right. I'm going to start over, because now it's recording guys. So please forgive me on that. So the roll call for the voting members myself. I'm here. Mike Bond is here. We have the representative from Volusia County is here. Chief Doug Berkey is here. Joe Mccallum is here from Orange County, Kevin Howard on there, Teresa Garcia is on there, and Kerry love
- the rest of the members that we have. Evan Doyle is on there. I didn't see anybody from Eastern Florida. Dave Miller is here from Seminole State College.
- Nobody from Osceola County or Osceola County corrections. Do we have anybody from the Satellite Beach police department
- and we have Tanisha Black. Okay?
- So we have a. We have a quorum in regards to what we're gonna be going over today. So we're good with that and also welcome Chris Carbonotti, who is the new fdle rep, or at least my area and Valencia, so welcome onto the meeting.
- Appreciate that. So couple of things we have to do. The 1st thing we're gonna do is I'm gonna make a motion to accept. Jeff Goldst is gonna be the interim director here at Valencia College.
- So I'm just making a motion to accept him in. He has been in this role before the Fdoe will be notified today after this meeting that he is the interim director, so that they stay in compliance with the Florida Department of Law enforcement.
- So, voting members, again, I'm making a motion. Do I get a second second second by Mike Bond. All those in favor.

St. Cloud Police Department Chief Douglas Goerke
01:54
I.

SPS 227
01:55
All right. Welcome interim, director.

- The next thing I have to do again. We are here today, actually, you know, Orange County reached out, but they were already in discussion with Rob Pigman. And obviously, you know, we're all still kind of in shock as to what happened.
- This meeting is taking place because Rob had asked for it. This everything that's going on right now today, you know, Rob was in discussion talking to me, talking to the fdl about it. So everybody's been brought up by Rob prior to this meeting taking place.
- Now, as you may or may not know, rob was also the vice chair of the region. 7.
- So that's another thing that we have to replace. So I am going to make another motion to
- so like Mike bond as the vice chair. Okay of the committee based off the fact that Mike has been on this committee for a long time. I work with Mike with the fdle. He's also vice chair of the High Liability Committee with me. He is one of the voting members.
- so I would like to make that selection. Now, if somebody else wants to come into that position, and we would have to have some type of vote on that and some type of election. But I think this would be much easier. He's been around for a while. He knows what we're doing.
- So again, I'd like to make a motion to select Mike Bond as the vice chair for the region. 7.
- Anybody have any discussion or any issues?

- Oh, so all the voting members, all those in I get a second on that second second by Joe Mccollum. All those in favor. Aye.

Kevin Howard
03:44
Alright!

SPS 227
03:45
Welcome vice chair. All right, I'm gonna leave your short meeting now.

- Alright. So the next thing we're gonna do is and with. This is what we're here for.
- Orange County sheriff's office has put in a request to be certified as their their own academy.
- So they have a presentation for us. And all those you know we've we've been down this road for the last few years with other places so we know what the what the whole situation is, once they give their presentation. What our job is to do is
- to figure out and vote on whether or not there's actually, they're showing that there's a need for them to have that account. That's what that's what our job is. For.
- Once we vote on that today. If it gets voted to move forward. Then the fdle comes out and they do a needs assessment throughout the region.
- and then, once they complete their needs assessment, they will then give that off to the Cjstc. Which Orange County will be invited to a Cgstc meeting, and they'll present their case at that point in time, and that's where it gets voted on by the Cgstc
- we're also here. Orlando Police department has also put in a request the 29 form. So the same process will take place for that. But we're going to start off with Orange County. They're going to do their presentation, and then we will go from there.
- Sure.
- Good morning. I'm Mark Canty. I'm the undersheriff here at the Orange County sheriff's office. A lot of friends in the room, so but I'm not here just as one of the executives of the Orange County sheriff's office. I'm here as a product of Valencia College of CGI. I am a product
- of this academy. I graduated from basic Law Enforcement Academy, 9,602. So I was the second class that was at Valencia. I served as an adjunct instructor here, particularly in firearms and defensive tactics. I also served as an Academy class coordinator out here as well, so I'm intimately familiar with Valencia College
- and the reputation that it has and what it can do for law enforcement in this community and that reputation of that partnership goes back almost 30 years.
- I'm joined by Major Reginald Hosey. He is our major over human resources, which includes training. He is also a product of Valencia Cji. In addition to graduating here, he also has been an adjunct instructor, continues to be an instructor for Valencia and advanced specialized in continuing education
- classes as well, he's also a a accomplished recruiter. He's been a recruiter. He's supervised recruiting unit at various levels. So he also is very well versed in what it takes to to be involved in a training center. And obviously, you know, Captain Joe Mccollum, who is our training session, captain. So
- I do want to thank

- Dr. Goltz for his continued commitment to the Orange County sheriff's office and his commitment, and all the staff. Terry Johnson, who's been here since I was here. This partnership is amazing, and they do outstanding work every day. I want to thank
- the Board for having us here and allowing us to present. We'll try to get through this really quickly. But this request has come. After several discussions between the Orange County sheriff's office and Cga, about how we can better deliver services to
- law enforcement here in Orange County.
- I'm not sure how this don't know.
- I was working before we started.
- Stand by technical difficulties. Here we go
- all right. So why are we here? So if you look at, if you go back and look in law enforcement over the last 10 years, recruiting for law enforcement has been a challenge. I think every agency has experienced it. But if you go back to Ferguson, where you had a little protesting when people didn't want to. People were saying they didn't want to be police. You go to
- the most recent one after George Floyd, when there was all the anti law enforcement sentiment across the country go to Covid when that created the great resign where a lot of people were leaving law enforcement. A lot of people were leaving the workforce in general.
- our numbers get down, and when the sheriff started in late 2018 we had probably 100 vacancies, but as we increased our staffing over time. We climbed very rapidly to 200 vacancies, and I think that's typical of other agencies across the country.
- So we know we needed to to kind of find a way to, to recruit more people to this profession, and this profession is, is quite a great profession. So, as we have increased our staffing.
- We found the need to to increase the number of deputies that we train. We have a great relationship with Valencia and putting people through their class, but we found that our needs were so great, in addition to sending and asking Valencia for more slots in their classes which prevent other agencies or other people from coming to the Academy.
- We've also sent recruits to 3 other training centers here locally. So we sent to some of the State Lake Tech. So we've used all the academies that are that are around, and we're still needing more and more people. I think the next thing we found is is 800 people move to Orange County every week.
- and with that amount of people we have to continue to hire, we've done a great job in Orange County, because we probably over the last 6 years have average, hiring about 150 deputies with last year being our high at 180. We're slated this year to go over 200. So we need a lot of deputies.
- I think one of the biggest things we're finding for law enforcement across the country is, how do you communicate your culture
- to your new hires? And how do you create? How do you communicate that as early as possible.
- when you go into Academy. That's not this. We're we're blessed because this Academy kind of is essentially run by us because we do have a coordinator here, but when you're not teaching specifically your culture to the agency or to your recruits, it delays
- the time that they get to understand your mission, your vision, your policies, your procedures, the mission of the division, and the philosophy of your head of agency. It delays that so every minute you delay is time lost. And then, I think what else we found is
- once a person completes the basic Recruit Academy. We still have to train them in that way in our way, and that takes anywhere between 5 to 9 weeks. Our own teaching classes have been as long as 9 weeks long, so instead of getting a recruit out to a deputy in 2022, 23

weeks. It's taken us over 30 weeks in some cases to get that recruit onto the street. So those are the reasons why we want to

- to kind of create our own academies, being able to communicate our our vision, our mission to our recruits as early as possible, and then being able to keep up with the numbers and the staffing requirements that we have as a large agency here in the region.
- the partnership with Valencia. So the partnership with Valencia here, with the Orange County sheriff's office has existed for approximately 30 years. When they left when the Academy left mid Florida Tech it came to Valencia College.
- From that time we have been a complete partner. Valencia has provided the classrooms, the defense attacks room and Pt areas. They've provided all that while we have provided access to our firearms range access to our driving pad or our law Enforcement Vehicle Operations Center. We've also provided a tactical simulator, and we've also provided a full time coordinator that is housed here in Valencia, and it's been that way since its inception out here at Valencia. Cji.
- So
- All of these things that we have are already FDA certified. Our range is fdl certified. Levo is fdl certified. The classroom here are FDA certified. The gym is all FDA certified. This is just a further collaboration between the Orange County sheriff's office and Valencia College to better deliver services to this community.
- And just look, this is our driving right, or this is our firearms range. So we have. We have dedicated ranges where we can completely get through the basic law enforcement curriculum.
- Same thing here is our levo or driving range.
- The buoyancy users currently uses. Now
- this is a dedicated classroom which is out here, and which has served for Academy classes in the past, so we know it meets all the the right criteria, all the spacing, all the technology needs, everything that we need is already there.
- And I can go back.
- This is one of the 2 gyms that's out here, where defensive tactics and some of the physical training would also be done. In addition to that, we have a running track here that was provided by Valencia, but we also have an obstacle course which was designed and paid for and maintained by the Orange County sheriff's office, which both
- we use as well as one see it and other member agencies, this region. So that is why we think we should be a training center. I think
- we lose nothing. We still maintain the great partnership between us and Valencia. We're still able to provide a great service to this community by allowing us to train our own recruits quickly and in our culture, but also frees up space, and that where Valencia can train other potential law enforcement professionals for future needs in this community. So
- and any questions.
- anybody have any questions before you do that, just let you know this. So when Rob called me he basically explained to me that
- you know, with the meetings they were having with Orange County that the Academy here couldn't provide, really couldn't provide what they needed, based on their conversations what they were having. So Rob was
- all for it. He was behind it 100%.
- And to me that that carries a lot of weight. Yeah, I'll add to that. The college
- supports this immensely, because it's kind of a shared training center model. Orange County sends a lot of sponsored recruits to us. We run 4 day classes a year, and they're sending us a lot of sponsored recruits. And the undersheriff said they're sending additional sponsored recruits to other schools.

- And if they create, if they are approved as their own training center, they're able to register their students in their training center. We are, we're developing an agreement where they'll of course, do their training out here. We're still going to run 3 Academy classes a year, but that opens up seats for free service, and maybe some of their other sponsored students that don't go into their
- their classes. So we're we're very supportive of this. It's kind of a shared training Center model. And I think it's going to serve the region very, very well, especially their needs, which are tremendous right now.
- And I think that's the great thing is like this partnership, like I said, it goes back 30 years. It started off with 2 classes a year. It expanded when I was Coordinator coordinator. Here was 3 classes, and one of the reasons why it expanded to 4 was just the the vast needs, particularly between Orange County and Orlando.
- The number of recruits that we needed to train to be able to keep up with our staff. And that's when it went to 4. And it's been probably 4 since probably oh, 6 or 7 trying to provide them. But this last, this last couple of years we've just seen. We need to hire so many people. So we're on pace right now to hire 200 deputies this year with the large percentage of those being sponsored recruitments and not people that are already certified.
- and we understand the importance of infusing the culture into their classes. I think Orlando is going to have the same discussion. We understand that because it's very generic when you come to our our classes right now, and they'll stay that way at open enrollment and maybe some sponsorships. But we understand that
- anybody have any questions on on the screen there, anybody?
- No, all right. So what we'll do is I'll go one by one. Well, I'll make a motion.
- Okay, I'll make a motion to accept Orange County as a new training center.
- I'll second. Okay. Seconded by Chief Gerke.

St. Cloud Police Department Chief Douglas Goerke
16:29
Yep.

SPS 227
16:30
All those in favor. Aye.

Kevin Howard
16:32
Alright!

SPS 227
16:34
Good to go. Thank you very much now. So what's gonna happen is I'll forward all this to the.

- and he's gonna take it, and they're gonna put the board together to do the needs assessment.
- and then you should get notified in regards to a date that one of the
- when's the next one? Well, there's 1 coming up in August, but we're not gonna be October, which is local. Okay? So you only have to travel

- all the way in the center right off. 5, 35. It's not that bad, all right. So next we're gonna have the presentation by the Orlando police department.
- Good morning, mother.
- Yeah, it's already Pre loaded, is it loaded? Let's yeah. We can do it over here.
- Can you click out of that one hit escape. Yeah, hit escape, and we'll X that one out
- and Orlando should be loaded, probably down. Hit the Powerpoint down there. Yep, it should be loaded. There you go. Yeah, it slideshow. There you go. Thank you.
- Okay.
- Good morning. My name is Captainisha Brown still. I, too, am a product of Valencia along with
- everyone that's here with me today I'm the captain of our professional Standards Division, which is over training as well. I have with me Lieutenant Danielle gateway. She's our section commander for professional standards. I have our field training. Sergeant Pete Decenzo, and our fto coordinator, Scott Ross, who also was previously a coordinator here at Valencia
- today. We're here for the same thing just as under Sheriff Canty said. Our main reasoning for wanting to have or run our own Academy is the need to hire more and get them out on the streets faster, just as Orange County. The city of Orlando also is growing, and what we see is
- when we get the recruits out of the Academy, they still have to go through our orientation process, which is also just learning all over again if we can get them from day one starting to immerse them in our culture, then it actually, you know, shortens that time and get them out on the street. We can expose them to our policies and procedures earlier.
- Which also to me, kind of relieves some of that stress. You know, when you come from the Academy. You're like, Okay, and then you get to Opd. And, oh, my God, I got to learn and test all over again, and the nervousness we get them from day one. They're already getting used to opd the culture. How we do things, our training tactics, and also the equipment.
- You know you shoot one thing in the Academy which you still would do. But we also train with optics if we can already get them in that firing range, you know, shooting and getting familiarized with our guns, the plates, and everything. I think it would release some of that stress, too. And, like we said shorten that time.
- We also have classrooms in our range, which is already approved. I'm kind of going fast, but
- we have a lot of opd instructors that already teach out here at Valencia. They will continue to do the same. And it would. You know, we have command staff that can start to know those recruits early. A lot of times we see them on that 1st day of orientation. They may not see us.
- but if you're there. Training command staff can drop in, you know. Talk to recruits, make them feel like they're part of the family earlier.
- right now. I mean the 2024 Academy curriculum actually refers to your agency's policy. But it does not talk about that. That is where we can fill in our opd policies. We can start them learning that early.
- It also incorporates the agency's instruction specific instruction during the Academy during that time where we can fill in and on, you know those hours that we can kind of play with?
- Like, I said, our optics rifle training, defensive tactics, 1st aid everything.
- here. What you know, another thing is our 10 codes
- recruits when they come in, you know, to orientation. Now you gotta learn 10 codes. Take tests. If we start getting them talking, learning the radio from day one immersing them that to me. I know if I had that I wouldn't have been so nervous with this guy as my account coordinator.

- We also we will partner with Seminole County. We've been in talks with them about using their driving range for Levo. We have defense detectives, classrooms, I mean, you know, rooms at Opd. At our training facility. We also have multiple classrooms that have already been certified. All of these have been certified by Opd. And Valencia. Sometimes use those now with the recruits as well.
- you know it allows us having our own Academy also allows us to start evaluating those recruits early. If we see something that needs to be worked on, instead of giving them this short time, we can from day one spend more time with those recruits that just aren't quite there, but they can be good officers. We know that a lot of recruits sometimes get lost in a shuffle just because they don't have that extra time.
- Why have them go through that and have to go to a smaller agency, learn and come back to us. We can start day one correcting and identifying those little small things that can just make them help them be successful.
- We are having our own Academy. We also have quality and control over those people who are instructing
- not to say that anything bad about any instructors, but we can know what the recruits are learning.
- Learn the opd way, and then it kind of eliminates, because we all know some recruits will say, Well, that's not what I learned in the Academy.
- Well, if you're already learning it the Opd way, then
- that throws that out of the window, our instructors will be vested in the recruits because they're training those people that are going to have to back them up on calls. They familiarize themselves with them. They know how you know I can have this recruit come day one of training and not be worried about if they just don't know. They've already started training with staff and OP. Officers.
- Like, I said, for us, establishing our own Academy, will help us with superior training quality.
- immersing them in their culture, early enhancing the evaluations and the mentorship of these young officers
- operational efficiency, and it would benefit us and the community we serve by getting these officers on the street quickly.
- Any questions anybody have any questions where y'all gonna do pt running at? Do you have a track?
- We actually would. Between here we're still, we'll be in talks with you about that and also at the training facility. Yeah, if you guys get approved, we're here for you for both agencies. You know, we've been in a huge partnership with these agencies for 30 years. So we're we're here to mentor and help and our tracks here and other things. So we can talk more.
- Seminole state. You're gonna use their drive. You guys are good with that, right? Because you need all the facilities. So that's good. You know. So again, my my point of view on this. You know, I've been here as the director you know, going on 8 years. I started when Rob, and working with the schools, and so on and so forth. You know I get, you know, I get the culture thing I get trying to immerse and get trying to have the agency people doing the teaching.
- because, you know, most of the schools are very generic, you know, and because we have to be because we have especially like my school. We have all kinds of agencies coming there. It's not just one or 2. It's multiple. But I always wondered why the larger agencies didn't have their own academy. To be honest with you.
- you guys, yeah, you guys have all the facilities, all that kind of stuff. So anyways.
- anybody have any comments. Screen.
- Make a motion to accept Orlando's bid for having Academy.

- So again, Captain Carrie Lowe, all those in favor.
- Aye.
- thank you all. Let me just add one other point from Valencia again. We've been in these partnerships with Orlando and Orange County for 30 years.
- The standard, I think in this region is very high, so I think you'll see just a very high standard spread across all 3 different training centers. If the 2 are approved by Fdle, and then, of course, we're here as a supplement we're here to support. We're here as a mentor for these agencies as well. So I think it for the region it's needed. We got such huge growth in the region. You all want your culture infused in each of your programs. We get it. And we're here to support.
- Okay? And I just have one other thing to add, it's not on the agenda because it just came out. Just so you guys all know, and I'm sure you probably have seen it just in case you didn't. So all our trust fund money is legislative based.
- And although all of us have our trust fund budgets in the Legislature just came back.
- and we've been reduced from $80 per officer to $78 and 56 cents per officer.
- So everybody's got to adjust their budgets.
- Something just came out from the Fdl yesterday. So just you guys, new guys coming in. That's you know, that happens. The trust fund used to be budgeted in a different way. But now it's all legislative based. So we're all dependent upon them to say, Here's your budget. Here you go. So that did just change. So it's going to affect us a little bit, and we're going to have to make those.
- You know, you guys are gonna have to make those
- those changes, the fun stuff. So just want to throw that out there. I have nothing for any old business, anybody have anything they want to make a suggestion go to their order. I got one quick question, are you a class, a or type, a class, A or B, you guys don't do corrections, do you? No, we don't.
- And yeah, yeah, so who does corrections in the region? You all do corrections besides. Me, yeah.
- all right. So that's it. So you are it? Yeah, yeah, we do. Orange County specifically. And then there's some non sponsored students.

Evan Doyle - Daytona State College

As well for Volusia and Flagler.

SPS 227

All right. So if there's nothing for good, your order, our next meeting. So this technically what isn't our is not our our fall meeting, but I'll be reaching out to you for a meeting, and probably Novemberish. We'll probably wait till after the commission meeting takes place, and we'll do something after that. So we can update everybody after the Commission meeting.

- So if nobody has anything, make a motion to adjourn motion to adjourn. Second, second, all those in favor getting adjourned have a great day. Thank you, guys, I really appreciate it.
- Thank you.

40. Are your training needs for basic recruit training being met by the current training school(s)? No.

41. If no, identify specific issues and circumstances where they have not been met. Valencia college cannot provide enough seats for our hiring needs each year. We sent over a hundred recruits to other schools due to Valencia College not being able to meet our needs. We also can incorporate our agency culture and equipment with our policies and procedures in our agency academy so they do not have to hear, "refer to your agency policies" at least 245 times in the current basic recruit curriculum.

42. Are your training needs being met by the current training school(s) for advanced or specialized training? Mostly.

43. If no, identify specific issues and circumstances where they have not been met. We have asked on occasion to add additional classes like FTO school, firearms, defensive tactics, and first aid courses due to having a need at the time.

44. Are you aware that the Orange County Sheriff's Office has requested certification as a CJSTC Criminal Justice Training School? Yes.

45. Are you aware of any reasons why the CJSTC should either grant or deny this request? We ask to be granted this request as Valencia College cannot provide enough seats for our hiring needs each year. Valencia College asked us to request our own academy while offering us the opportunity to maintain our long-standing partnership to train recruits. We will be able to get the recruits on the streets faster by about four weeks by running our own academy. We can incorporate our agency culture and equipment with our policies and procedures, so our recruits do not have to hear, "Refer to your agency policies" at least 245 times in the current basic recruit curriculum. The recruits can learn our programs, BWCs, equipment, specific firearms with optics/rifles, our 10-codes starting day one.

    We have significant resources to run our own academy and advance specialized courses due to having our own outdoors firearms range which has 134 shooting lanes and a rifle range; our own 1,060' x 395' and 600' x 600' certified vehicle operations driving pads; 24 training section instructors, and approximately 282 plus certified adjunct instructors (120 firearms instructors, 58 defensive tactics instructors, 53 driving instructors, 4 first aid instructors, and various legal professional instructors.

46. If approved by the Commission and available, would you send your recruits or certified officers to the Orange County Sheriff's Office criminal justice academy for training instead of the current training school(s)? Yes.

47. Why? This would be the agency's designated training school.

48. Do you feel there is a need for an additional training school in Region VII? Yes ☒ No ☐

49. Do you have any additional comments? We have had a great partnership with Valencia College for over 30 years and will continue to partner with them even after approval of our training center. However, it has been evident for several years that Valencia College cannot keep up with the needs of our agency as previously mentioned. We are thankful for Valencia College's support as they have worked with us to build the foundation toward having an approved training center at the Orange County Sheriff's Office. Thank you for your consideration.

Orange County Sheriff's Office
Training Needs Analysis

Attachment 7

September 15, 2025

Florida Department of Law Enforcement
Criminal Justice Professional Division
2331 Phillips Road
Tallahassee, FL 32308

Valencia College currently holds and maintains a Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School Certification (Law Enforcement and Corrections) through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission, and we fully support the applications for a Type "B" Training School Certifications (Law Enforcement only) by both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. We value our longstanding, collaborative partnerships with these respected central Florida law enforcement agencies and are dedicated to continuing our mutual investment in high-quality criminal justice training in Orange County. In particular, our partnership with the Orange County Sheriff's Office has been instrumental in leveraging shared facilities and resources for decades, a testament to a committed and effective joint effort.

We believe that the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for these law enforcement agencies will not only strengthen our existing partnerships but also foster a transformative collaboration, particularly with the Orange County Sheriff's Office, as we move toward a model of shared, dedicated resources to support each other's law enforcement training programs.

This enhanced partnership includes the reciprocal use of critical training facilities and resources, such as the Sheriff's Office firearms range, driving (LEVO) range, tactical simulator, and the physical abilities course located on Valencia College's campus. Additionally, Valencia College will provide use to its classrooms, defensive tactics room, first aid room, computer labs, and office space to further support each other's training initiatives.

Furthermore, the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department is imperative for Valencia College to transform and update long-standing interlocal agreements with each agency to establish an improved and sustainable fiscal model that supports the long-term financial planning and operational efficiency of the law enforcement academy program for Valencia College.

Enrollments

In terms of enrollment, for many years, most of Valencia College's law enforcement academy classes have been largely filled with sponsored students from the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department.

In 2023, Valencia College enrolled 205 students in its law enforcement academy, with 126 students (61%) sponsored by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. In 2024, enrollment increased to 230 students, of which 140 (61%) were similarly sponsored by these two agencies.

While this high level of sponsorship reflects the strong partnerships with the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, it also significantly limits available space for non-sponsored students seeking law enforcement certification, as well as for recruits sponsored by other central Florida law enforcement agencies. These include the Altamonte Springs Police Department, Apopka Police Department, Clermont Police Department, Maitland Police Department, Ocoee Police Department, Sanford Police Department, University of Central Florida Police Department, Winter Park Police Department, Seminole County Sheriff's Office, and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, all of which have enrolled sponsored students in Valencia College's Law Enforcement Academy over the past two years.

Additionally, as an approved Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School, Valencia College offers multiple corrections academy classes annually as well. Typically, three classes are conducted each year in partnership with the Orange County Corrections Department, with additional students frequently sponsored by other agencies such as the Osceola and Seminole County Corrections Departments.

College Credit Pathway Programs

In addition to sponsorships from the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, two distinct academic pathways contribute to enrollment in Valencia College's law enforcement academy, and we must have law enforcement academy "seats" available for students in these programs. These include: (1) the Criminal Justice A.S. Law Enforcement Academy Track at Valencia College, and (2) the recently launched Criminal Justice B.A. Professional Track at the University of Central Florida (UCF). In both programs, students complete all required college credit coursework prior to enrolling in Valencia's law enforcement academy during their final semester. Upon successful completion of the law enforcement academy, students receive their law enforcement certification and fulfill the final requirements for their degree. College credits are awarded either through articulation following academy completion at Valencia or via an internship model at UCF.

Valencia College's Criminal Justice A.S. - Law Enforcement Academy Track program can be found at: https://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/degrees/associateinscience/criminaljusticeparalegalstudies/cjlawenforcementacademytrack/

https://www.ucf.edu/news/ucf-rolls-out-new-professional-track-for-bachelors-degree-in-criminal-justice/

Orange County Population Projections

Another important factor to consider regarding the success and sustainability of Valencia College's law enforcement program is the population growth in Orange County. The University of Florida's Bureau of Economic and Business Research (BEBR) reports Orange County's current population of 1,511,568 is projected to grow to between 1.81 million (20% increase) and 2.07 million (37% increase) by 2024. This growth will have a positive impact on enrollments in Valencia College's law enforcement program. As the Orange County's population grows, so too will the demand for public safety services, requiring the expansion of law enforcement personnel across local law enforcement and corrections agencies. This anticipated need for a larger, well-trained workforce will continue to position Valencia College as a critical pipeline for preparing future officers, increasing both the volume and diversity of candidates seeking certification and career advancement in criminal justice. The college is well-positioned to meet this demand through its established programs and partnerships with regional law enforcement agencies.

Planning and Support for a New Model in 2026

In anticipation of the forthcoming approval of Training School Certifications for the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department on October 30, Valencia College is working closely with both agencies to support a smooth and successful transition. Collaborative planning is actively underway to project class schedules and enrollment needs for training programs to be held both at Valencia College and at the newly established training centers at each agency, expected to launch in 2026. This joint effort is further strengthening Valencia College's long-standing partnerships with both the Sheriff's Office and the Police Department, as we contribute our expertise and guidance to help shape this evolving model of law enforcement academy training in Orange County.

Lastly, to reiterate, Valencia College fully supports the approval of the Type "B" Training School Certification applications submitted by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. This initiative aligns with our shared commitment to expanding access to quality law enforcement training and strengthening public safety in our region. Our support is grounded in several key priorities as I highlighted in this letter: the increasing demand to accommodate more non-sponsored students, including those enrolled in our Criminal Justice A.S. Law Enforcement Academy Track, as well as the University of Central Florida's Criminal Justice B.A. Professional Track; the significant population growth projected in Orange County; and the importance of establishing a more sustainable and responsive fiscal model for Valencia College's law enforcement academy program as we transforming our interlocal agreements with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Through continued collaboration with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, Valencia College remains committed to advancing and meeting the evolving needs of law enforcement officers in Orange County for many years to come.

To the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission:

On behalf of Valencia College, I offer our full support of the applications for Type "B" Training School Certifications (Law Enforcement only) by both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Valencia College (Valencia) currently holds and maintains a Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School Certification (Law Enforcement and Corrections) through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. We believe that the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for these law enforcement agencies will not only strengthen our existing partnerships but also foster a transformative collaboration as we move toward a model of shared, dedicated resources to support each other's law enforcement training programs.

The applications submitted by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department align with our shared commitment to expanding access to quality law enforcement training and strengthening public safety in our region. Our support is grounded in several key priorities: the increasing demand to accommodate more non-sponsored students, including those enrolled in Valencia's Criminal Justice Associate in Science (A.S.) Law Enforcement Academy Track, as well as the University of Central Florida's Criminal Justice Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) Professional Track; the significant population growth projected for Orange County and the Central Florida region; and the importance of establishing a more sustainable and responsive fiscal model for Valencia's law enforcement academy program as we transform our interlocal agreements with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Through continued collaboration with both agencies, Valencia remains committed to advancing and meeting the evolving needs of law enforcement officers in Orange County for many years to come.

12. Are you aware that the Orange County Sheriff's Office has applied for certification as a CJSTC criminal justice training school? Yes

13. Are you aware of any reasons why the CJSTC should either grant or deny this request?

I was present at the regional meeting when the Orange County Sheriff's Office presented their justification for an agency training center. While I believe that the current training centers that serve the region are capable of increasing production enough to cover staffing concerns, I believe they showed a need based on their ability to reduce time from basic recruit training to field training.

14. Do you feel there is a need for an additional training school in Region VII? Yes ☒ No ☐

15. Do you have any additional comments for the Commission's consideration?

None.

Executive Summary

On July 23, 2025, the Orlando Police Department (OPD) requested permission from the Region 7 Training Council to submit a Criminal Justice Training School Certification and Re-certification Application, form CJSTC 29 to the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission to request initial certification as a Commission-approved training school. The Region 7 Training Council voted to approve the request by OPD. (Attachment 1)

On July 23, 2025, OPD submitted a Criminal Justice Training School Certification and Re-certification Application, form CJSTC 29 to Commission staff for consideration by the Commission. (Attachment 2) The application is for Type B certification, which grants a training school the authority to deliver Law Enforcement Commission-approved Basic Recruit Training Program courses and Commission-approved Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses pursuant to Rule 11B-21.002(2)(b), Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).

Needs Analysis

Rule 11B-21.002(3)(b), F.A.C., requires Commission staff to conduct a needs analysis for the region or local training area to be serviced by a new training school. The rule further requires the Commission to deny an application for certification as a training school if a training need does not exist. Commission staff conducted a needs analysis from September 8 - 11, 2025. The assessment team consisted of Training and Research Manager Terry Baker and Field Representatives Shawn Fagan, Glenn Miller, and Chris Scarpinati. The needs analysis consisted of interviewing all agency administrators or designees of law enforcement agencies in Orange County as the local service area for OPD; interviewing the training school director for Valencia College, Criminal Justice Institute (VC) and surveying the directors for the remaining training schools in Region 7; inspecting the OPD classroom and high liability facilities to ensure compliance with Rules 11B-21.005(3)-(7), F.A.C.; and reviewing the staffing requirements pursuant to Rule 11B-21.005(8), F.A.C. All interviews and surveys were conducted using standardized survey instruments for agencies and training schools respectively. (Attachment 3) The agency survey instrument questions were designed to capture information regarding the current agency size; predicted growth; officer training, both in-house and through CJSTC training centers; distances traveled for training; satisfaction with their current training centers; and discussion of the OPD request. The training school survey instrument questions were designed to capture information regarding the recent training offered, number of courses, number of students, and discussion of the OPD request.

Interview with Orlando Police Department

Commission staff interviewed Chief Eric Smith along with members of his staff and completed the standard agency survey instrument. (Attachment 4) OPD employs 1,023 law enforcement officers. OPD indicated that they anticipate having approximately 93 law enforcement vacancies and new positions over the next year. They further indicated that with the anticipated agency and population growth in Orange County, they expect to have 300 law enforcement vacancies between attrition from current positions and new positions added over the next five years.

OPD indicated that they primarily use VC for their basic recruit training needs because it is the option available in Orange County. They stated that it is approximately nine miles from the OPD headquarters to VC and typically takes about 15 minutes to drive there. OPD indicated there is a variance in travel time depending on the time of day. OPD indicated they have sponsored approximately 110 law enforcement recruits through VC for basic recruit training over the past two years and anticipate needing 500 recruits over the next five years.

OPD indicated they primarily use VC for Commission-approved Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses, but also use Seminole State College Center for Public Safety, Volusia Sheriff's Office Training Academy, Daytona State College School of Emergency Services, Criminal Justice Academy of Osceola, and Eastern Florida State College Public Safety Institute as well. OPD indicated law enforcement officers attended approximately 880 Advanced or Specialized Training Program Courses from 2023 through 2024. They anticipate this rate of training to continue for the next five years.

OPD was asked if VC is meeting their current training needs for basic recruit training. They responded "No" to having their needs met for basic recruit training. OPD indicated they have seen an increase in the percentage of academy graduates not successfully completing their orientation and field training process. They feel being able to host the basic recruit training will allow them to better prepare the recruits for the agency by being able to incorporate OPD's culture, policies, procedures, and equipment into the training and it will allow them to evaluate the recruits more effectively during training. They further feel having their own academy will help get trained officers on the street quicker by being able to reduce post-academy training and will reduce the post-academy training costs. OPD was asked if VC will be able to meet their training needs for basic recruit training over the next five years. They responded "No". OPD explained they believe with the population growth in the Orange County area, their increasing recruitment needs, and their FTO program failure rates, VC will not be able to keep up with their demands to adequately serve the citizens of Orlando.

OPD was asked if VC is meeting their current training needs for post-basic training. They responded "No" to having their needs met for post-basic training. OPD indicated that Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses at VC typically fill very quickly, and waitlists are common for high demand courses such as instructor courses. This causes some officers to delay getting necessary training or travel greater distances to get the training, increasing the agency costs for the training. OPD explained that they have a very good relationship with VC and intend to maintain that relationship.

Interview with the Valencia College, Criminal Justice Institute

Commission staff interviewed Dean Jeffrey Goltz and Director Jason Pearson and completed the standard training school survey instrument. (Attachment 5) VC currently holds Type A certification, which allows them to provide any Commission-approved training. Their certification is valid through June 30, 2030. VC uses their own facilities for defensive tactics and first aid academic training. They use the firearms range and driving range owned by the Orange County Sheriff's Office for firearms and vehicle operations training. VC has satellite classroom and high liability sites at other locations within Region 7, including the Ocoee Police Department, Orange County Sheriff's Office, Orlando Police Department, and several private vendor locations.

According to the Automated Training Management System, VC provided 14 law enforcement basic recruit programs, nine correctional basic recruit programs, seven cross-over basic recruit training programs and six equivalency of training programs from January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2024. VC had a total of 590 students graduate from law enforcement basic recruit programs, 194 students graduate from correctional basic recruit programs, 11 students graduate from cross-over basic recruit programs, and 80 students graduate from equivalency of training programs. Over this period, of the 590 students who graduated from a law enforcement basic recruit program, 43 were employed with OPD at the time of attendance. Director Pearson indicated that approximately 49% of VC students are sponsored or employed by agencies while attending the basic recruit academy. VC provided 192 Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses during the same period with a total of 4,079 students completing these courses.

Dean Goltz and Director Pearson indicated that they believe there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7 and support the certification of OPD as a training school. They indicated OPD may have the ability to offer classes with fewer students and may be able to run classes more as needed rather than on a set schedule. They believe OPD being about to train their officers will also free up space for self-sponsored students in the basic recruit training programs and seats in the Advance/Specialized Training Program Courses for other agencies. They indicated VC will be able to handle the volume of Advanced/Specialized Training Program Courses for Region 7 and will be able to handle the basic recruit training needs of the other agencies in Orange County. Additionally, Dean Goltz provided a letter of support from the Valencia College Criminal Justice Institute and Dr. Kathleen Plinske, President of Valencia College provided a letter of support from Valencia College. (Attachment 6)

Agency Interviews

Commission staff interviewed the agency administrator or their designee for all Region 7 law enforcement employing agencies in Orange County and completed the standard agency survey instrument for each agency. Twelve agency administrators elected to participate in the interviews with designees being assigned for the remaining two agencies. In addition to OPD, 14 additional agencies were interviewed. A summary of the results of these 14 additional agency interviews is reflected below. The completed survey instruments are attached for reference. (Attachment 7)

Of the 14 agencies interviewed, six indicated they primarily use VC for basic recruit training needs. Six agencies do not sponsor basic recruits, one agency uses the Criminal Justice Academy of Osceola, and one agency uses Lake Technical College Institute of Public Safety for their basic recruit training needs. Eleven agencies indicated their needs were being met for basic recruit training hiring basic recruits. Two agencies indicated they do not hire basic recruits. One agency indicated their needs were not being met for basic recruit training. The agency which indicated their needs were not being met indicated VC is unable to provide enough seats for their hiring needs each year. Three agencies indicated they would send recruits to OPD to be trained if available and four indicated they would consider sending recruits to OPD if the courses or training they needed were offered. Seven agencies indicated they would not send recruits to OPD to be trained.

Thirteen of the agencies indicated they use VC for their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs but also use other Region 7 training schools frequently depending on the courses being offered and the agency needs. One agency indicated they primarily use Daytona State College School of Emergency Services. Eleven agencies indicated their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs were being met. Three agencies indicated their Advanced and Specialized Training Program needs were mostly being met. Agencies which indicated their needs were mostly being met indicated courses fill up quickly and VC does not offer enough courses for high demand topics.

When the agency administrators or designees were asked if there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7, seven responded "Yes" and seven responded "No" to the question. None of the agencies were opposed to OPD becoming a training school. Five agency administrators or designees felt that the addition of OPD as a training school would open up seats for smaller agencies and create another option for Advanced and Specialized Training Program courses. None of the agencies opposed OPD's request.

Training School Interviews

Commission staff surveyed the training center directors from the seven remaining Commission-certified training schools in Region 7 using the standard training school survey instrument. A summary of the results of these seven training school surveys is reflected below. The completed survey instruments are attached for reference. (Attachment 8)

In addition to questions related to the number of courses offered and students trained by the training schools, the training school directors were asked if there was any reason for the Commission to either grant or deny the OPD request and if there is a need for an additional training school in Region 7. While none of the directors were opposed to the OPD request, one indicated no need existed for a new school, four indicated there is a need for a new school, and two indicated they did not have enough information to formulate an opinion as to if a need existed for Orange County. One director indicated the approval of OPD's request would enhance the training access the region. One director expressed concerns of whether existing Commission staffing level is sufficient to adequately oversee, monitor, audit, and inspect training schools with the increase in the number of training schools. One director felt the existing training schools need to work better with agencies to meet their needs. ATMS data concerning the number of courses offered, types of courses offered, and number of students taught by all training schools in Region 7 is attached for reference. (Attachment 9)

Facility Inspections

The OPD proposed facilities were inspected as required by Rule 11B-21.002(3)(b), F.A.C. OPD owns their own facilities. All meet the requirements and are documented on the appropriate forms. (Attachment 9)

Summary

Based on the interviews with the agency administrators or designees, 13 believe their training needs over the next five years will be met by their current training school. Based on information collected during the interviews, the total estimates of officers needed to fill positions from vacancies and agency growth over the next five years are:

Apopka Police Department	LE 20
City of Belle Isle Police Department	LE 1
Eatonville Police Department	LE 6
Edgewood Police Department	LE 0
Maitland Police Department	LE 15
Oakland Police Department	LE 15
Ocoee Police Department	LE 40
Orange County Public Schools District Police	LE 10
Orange County Sheriff's Office	LE 590
Orlando Police Department	LE 300
State Attorney's Office, Ninth Judicial Circuit	LE 2
University of Central Florida, University Police Department	LE 20
Windermere Police Department	LE 5
Winter Garden Police Department	LE 35

Winter Park Police Department	LE 10
Estimated Total	LE 1,069

Not all of these officers will be entering basic recruit classes. Certified officers will move from other agencies, both inside and outside of Orange County. Some officers will be from other states or the federal government and complete the Equivalency of Training process. VC indicated they can accommodate the anticipated growth in Orange County.

OPD indicated having their own training school will allow them to more quickly address their hiring needs and allow them to better evaluate the recruits during training and minimize the recruit failures during the orientation and field training process. They further indicated they would have the ability to incorporate their agency culture and procedures into the basic training allowing for a shorter field training period and reducing costs. OPD indicated having their own training school will allow them to offer Advanced and Specialized Program Courses that fit their needs.

Having ethical, well-trained, and qualified law enforcement officers to serve the residents of the State of Florida is vital. There is support for OPD to be approved as a Commission-certified training school from the agencies in Region 7 and no agency expressed opposition to their request. OPD has the facilities and personnel in place to immediately conduct Commission-approved Law Enforcement Basic Recruit Training Programs, Advanced Training Program courses, and Specialized Training Program courses if approved by the Commission. If the OPD request for certification as a training school is not approved, VC should be able to meet the immediate training needs within Region 7.

Recommendation

All the agencies interviewed supported the need for an additional training school in Region 7. Four training center directors indicated a need exists for an additional training school in Region 7 with the remaining three directors indicating no need exists or that they did not have enough information to provide an opinion. Director Pearson of VC indicated a need for a new training school in Region 7 exists. Based on the support of the Region 7 Training Council, VC, and lack of opposition to the request by agencies, Commission staff recommends the Commission find that a training need exists for the local training area intended to be serviced by OPD and approve OPD's request for certification as a training school.

Might wanna start over. Just so we catch everything.

- All right. I'm going to start over, because now it's recording guys. So please forgive me on that. So the roll call for the voting members myself. I'm here. Mike Bond is here. We have the representative from Volusia County is here. Chief Doug Berkey is here. Joe Mccallum is here from Orange County, Kevin Howard on there, Teresa Garcia is on there, and Kerry love
- the rest of the members that we have. Evan Doyle is on there. I didn't see anybody from Eastern Florida. Dave Miller is here from Seminole State College.
- Nobody from Osceola County or Osceola County corrections. Do we have anybody from the Satellite Beach police department
- and we have Tanisha Black. Okay?
- So we have a. We have a quorum in regards to what we're gonna be going over today. So we're good with that and also welcome Chris Carbonotti, who is the new fdle rep, or at least my area and Valencia, so welcome onto the meeting.
- Appreciate that. So couple of things we have to do. The 1st thing we're gonna do is I'm gonna make a motion to accept. Jeff Goldst is gonna be the interim director here at Valencia College.
- So I'm just making a motion to accept him in. He has been in this role before the Fdoe will be notified today after this meeting that he is the interim director, so that they stay in compliance with the Florida Department of Law enforcement.
- So, voting members, again, I'm making a motion. Do I get a second second second by Mike Bond. All those in favor.

St. Cloud Police Department Chief Douglas Goerke

01:54

I.

SPS 227

01:55

All right. Welcome interim, director.

- The next thing I have to do again. We are here today, actually, you know, Orange County reached out, but they were already in discussion with Rob Pigman. And obviously, you know, we're all still kind of in shock as to what happened.
- This meeting is taking place because Rob had asked for it. This everything that's going on right now today, you know, Rob was in discussion talking to me, talking to the fdl about it. So everybody's been brought up by Rob prior to this meeting taking place.
- Now, as you may or may not know, rob was also the vice chair of the region. 7.
- So that's another thing that we have to replace. So I am going to make another motion to
- so like Mike bond as the vice chair. Okay of the committee based off the fact that Mike has been on this committee for a long time. I work with Mike with the fdle. He's also vice chair of the High Liability Committee with me. He is one of the voting members.
- so I would like to make that selection. Now, if somebody else wants to come into that position, and we would have to have some type of vote on that and some type of election. But I think this would be much easier. He's been around for a while. He knows what we're doing.
- So again, I'd like to make a motion to select Mike Bond as the vice chair for the region. 7.
- Anybody have any discussion or any issues?

- Oh, so all the voting members, all those in I get a second on that second second by Joe Mccollum. All those in favor. Aye.

Kevin Howard
03:44
Alright!

SPS 227
03:45
Welcome vice chair. All right, I'm gonna leave your short meeting now.

- Alright. So the next thing we're gonna do is and with. This is what we're here for.
- Orange County sheriff's office has put in a request to be certified as their their own academy.
- So they have a presentation for us. And all those you know we've we've been down this road for the last few years with other places so we know what the what the whole situation is, once they give their presentation. What our job is to do is
- to figure out and vote on whether or not there's actually, they're showing that there's a need for them to have that account. That's what that's what our job is. For.
- Once we vote on that today. If it gets voted to move forward. Then the fdle comes out and they do a needs assessment throughout the region.
- and then, once they complete their needs assessment, they will then give that off to the Cjstc. Which Orange County will be invited to a Cgstc meeting, and they'll present their case at that point in time, and that's where it gets voted on by the Cgstc
- we're also here. Orlando Police department has also put in a request the 29 form. So the same process will take place for that. But we're going to start off with Orange County. They're going to do their presentation, and then we will go from there.
- Sure.
- Good morning. I'm Mark Canty. I'm the undersheriff here at the Orange County sheriff's office. A lot of friends in the room, so but I'm not here just as one of the executives of the Orange County sheriff's office. I'm here as a product of Valencia College of CGI. I am a product
- of this academy. I graduated from basic Law Enforcement Academy, 9,602. So I was the second class that was at Valencia. I served as an adjunct instructor here, particularly in firearms and defensive tactics. I also served as an Academy class coordinator out here as well, so I'm intimately familiar with Valencia College
- and the reputation that it has and what it can do for law enforcement in this community and that reputation of that partnership goes back almost 30 years.
- I'm joined by Major Reginald Hosey. He is our major over human resources, which includes training. He is also a product of Valencia Cji. In addition to graduating here, he also has been an adjunct instructor, continues to be an instructor for Valencia and advanced specialized in continuing education
- classes as well, he's also a a accomplished recruiter. He's been a recruiter. He's supervised recruiting unit at various levels. So he also is very well versed in what it takes to to be involved in a training center. And obviously, you know, Captain Joe Mccollum, who is our training session, captain. So
- I do want to thank

- Dr. Goltz for his continued commitment to the Orange County sheriff's office and his commitment, and all the staff. Terry Johnson, who's been here since I was here. This partnership is amazing, and they do outstanding work every day. I want to thank
- the Board for having us here and allowing us to present. We'll try to get through this really quickly. But this request has come. After several discussions between the Orange County sheriff's office and Cga, about how we can better deliver services to
- law enforcement here in Orange County.
- I'm not sure how this don't know.
- I was working before we started.
- Stand by technical difficulties. Here we go
- all right. So why are we here? So if you look at, if you go back and look in law enforcement over the last 10 years, recruiting for law enforcement has been a challenge. I think every agency has experienced it. But if you go back to Ferguson, where you had a little protesting when people didn't want to. People were saying they didn't want to be police. You go to
- the most recent one after George Floyd, when there was all the anti law enforcement sentiment across the country go to Covid when that created the great resign where a lot of people were leaving law enforcement. A lot of people were leaving the workforce in general.
- our numbers get down, and when the sheriff started in late 2018 we had probably 100 vacancies, but as we increased our staffing over time. We climbed very rapidly to 200 vacancies, and I think that's typical of other agencies across the country.
- So we know we needed to to kind of find a way to, to recruit more people to this profession, and this profession is, is quite a great profession. So, as we have increased our staffing.
- We found the need to to increase the number of deputies that we train. We have a great relationship with Valencia and putting people through their class, but we found that our needs were so great, in addition to sending and asking Valencia for more slots in their classes which prevent other agencies or other people from coming to the Academy.
- We've also sent recruits to 3 other training centers here locally. So we sent to some of the State Lake Tech. So we've used all the academies that are that are around, and we're still needing more and more people. I think the next thing we found is is 800 people move to Orange County every week.
- and with that amount of people we have to continue to hire, we've done a great job in Orange County, because we probably over the last 6 years have average, hiring about 150 deputies with last year being our high at 180. We're slated this year to go over 200. So we need a lot of deputies.
- I think one of the biggest things we're finding for law enforcement across the country is, how do you communicate your culture
- to your new hires? And how do you create? How do you communicate that as early as possible.
- when you go into Academy. That's not this. We're we're blessed because this Academy kind of is essentially run by us because we do have a coordinator here, but when you're not teaching specifically your culture to the agency or to your recruits, it delays
- the time that they get to understand your mission, your vision, your policies, your procedures, the mission of the division, and the philosophy of your head of agency. It delays that so every minute you delay is time lost. And then, I think what else we found is
- once a person completes the basic Recruit Academy. We still have to train them in that way in our way, and that takes anywhere between 5 to 9 weeks. Our own teaching classes have been as long as 9 weeks long, so instead of getting a recruit out to a deputy in 2022, 23

weeks. It's taken us over 30 weeks in some cases to get that recruit onto the street. So those are the reasons why we want to

- to kind of create our own academies, being able to communicate our our vision, our mission to our recruits as early as possible, and then being able to keep up with the numbers and the staffing requirements that we have as a large agency here in the region.
- the partnership with Valencia. So the partnership with Valencia here, with the Orange County sheriff's office has existed for approximately 30 years. When they left when the Academy left mid Florida Tech it came to Valencia College.
- From that time we have been a complete partner. Valencia has provided the classrooms, the defense attacks room and Pt areas. They've provided all that while we have provided access to our firearms range access to our driving pad or our law Enforcement Vehicle Operations Center. We've also provided a tactical simulator, and we've also provided a full time coordinator that is housed here in Valencia, and it's been that way since its inception out here at Valencia. Cji.
- So
- All of these things that we have are already FDA certified. Our range is fdl certified. Levo is fdl certified. The classroom here are FDA certified. The gym is all FDA certified. This is just a further collaboration between the Orange County sheriff's office and Valencia College to better deliver services to this community.
- And just look, this is our driving right, or this is our firearms range. So we have. We have dedicated ranges where we can completely get through the basic law enforcement curriculum.
- Same thing here is our levo or driving range.
- The buoyancy users currently uses. Now
- this is a dedicated classroom which is out here, and which has served for Academy classes in the past, so we know it meets all the the right criteria, all the spacing, all the technology needs, everything that we need is already there.
- And I can go back.
- This is one of the 2 gyms that's out here, where defensive tactics and some of the physical training would also be done. In addition to that, we have a running track here that was provided by Valencia, but we also have an obstacle course which was designed and paid for and maintained by the Orange County sheriff's office, which both
- we use as well as one see it and other member agencies, this region. So that is why we think we should be a training center. I think
- we lose nothing. We still maintain the great partnership between us and Valencia. We're still able to provide a great service to this community by allowing us to train our own recruits quickly and in our culture, but also frees up space, and that where Valencia can train other potential law enforcement professionals for future needs in this community. So
- and any questions.
- anybody have any questions before you do that, just let you know this. So when Rob called me he basically explained to me that
- you know, with the meetings they were having with Orange County that the Academy here couldn't provide, really couldn't provide what they needed, based on their conversations what they were having. So Rob was
- all for it. He was behind it 100%.
- And to me that that carries a lot of weight. Yeah, I'll add to that. The college
- supports this immensely, because it's kind of a shared training center model. Orange County sends a lot of sponsored recruits to us. We run 4 day classes a year, and they're sending us a lot of sponsored recruits. And the undersheriff said they're sending additional sponsored recruits to other schools.

- And if they create, if they are approved as their own training center, they're able to register their students in their training center. We are, we're developing an agreement where they'll of course, do their training out here. We're still going to run 3 Academy classes a year, but that opens up seats for free service, and maybe some of their other sponsored students that don't go into their
- their classes. So we're we're very supportive of this. It's kind of a shared training Center model. And I think it's going to serve the region very, very well, especially their needs, which are tremendous right now.
- And I think that's the great thing is like this partnership, like I said, it goes back 30 years. It started off with 2 classes a year. It expanded when I was Coordinator coordinator. Here was 3 classes, and one of the reasons why it expanded to 4 was just the the vast needs, particularly between Orange County and Orlando.
- The number of recruits that we needed to train to be able to keep up with our staff. And that's when it went to 4. And it's been probably 4 since probably oh, 6 or 7 trying to provide them. But this last, this last couple of years we've just seen. We need to hire so many people. So we're on pace right now to hire 200 deputies this year with the large percentage of those being sponsored recruitments and not people that are already certified.
- and we understand the importance of infusing the culture into their classes. I think Orlando is going to have the same discussion. We understand that because it's very generic when you come to our our classes right now, and they'll stay that way at open enrollment and maybe some sponsorships. But we understand that
- anybody have any questions on on the screen there, anybody?
- No, all right. So what we'll do is I'll go one by one. Well, I'll make a motion.
- Okay, I'll make a motion to accept Orange County as a new training center.
- I'll second. Okay. Seconded by Chief Gerke.

St. Cloud Police Department Chief Douglas Goerke
16:29
Yep.

SPS 227
16:30
All those in favor. Aye.

Kevin Howard
16:32
Alright!

SPS 227
16:34
Good to go. Thank you very much now. So what's gonna happen is I'll forward all this to the.

- and he's gonna take it, and they're gonna put the board together to do the needs assessment.
- and then you should get notified in regards to a date that one of the
- when's the next one? Well, there's 1 coming up in August, but we're not gonna be October, which is local. Okay? So you only have to travel

- all the way in the center right off. 5, 35. It's not that bad, all right. So next we're gonna have the presentation by the Orlando police department.
- Good morning, mother.
- Yeah, it's already Pre loaded, is it loaded? Let's yeah. We can do it over here.
- Can you click out of that one hit escape. Yeah, hit escape, and we'll X that one out
- and Orlando should be loaded, probably down. Hit the Powerpoint down there. Yep, it should be loaded. There you go. Yeah, it slideshow. There you go. Thank you.
- Okay.
- Good morning. My name is Captainisha Brown still. I, too, am a product of Valencia along with
- everyone that's here with me today I'm the captain of our professional Standards Division, which is over training as well. I have with me Lieutenant Danielle gateway. She's our section commander for professional standards. I have our field training. Sergeant Pete Decenzo, and our fto coordinator, Scott Ross, who also was previously a coordinator here at Valencia
- today. We're here for the same thing just as under Sheriff Canty said. Our main reasoning for wanting to have or run our own Academy is the need to hire more and get them out on the streets faster, just as Orange County. The city of Orlando also is growing, and what we see is
- when we get the recruits out of the Academy, they still have to go through our orientation process, which is also just learning all over again if we can get them from day one starting to immerse them in our culture, then it actually, you know, shortens that time and get them out on the street. We can expose them to our policies and procedures earlier.
- Which also to me, kind of relieves some of that stress. You know, when you come from the Academy. You're like, Okay, and then you get to Opd. And, oh, my God, I got to learn and test all over again, and the nervousness we get them from day one. They're already getting used to opd the culture. How we do things, our training tactics, and also the equipment.
- You know you shoot one thing in the Academy which you still would do. But we also train with optics if we can already get them in that firing range, you know, shooting and getting familiarized with our guns, the plates, and everything. I think it would release some of that stress, too. And, like we said shorten that time.
- We also have classrooms in our range, which is already approved. I'm kind of going fast, but
- we have a lot of opd instructors that already teach out here at Valencia. They will continue to do the same. And it would. You know, we have command staff that can start to know those recruits early. A lot of times we see them on that 1st day of orientation. They may not see us.
- but if you're there. Training command staff can drop in, you know. Talk to recruits, make them feel like they're part of the family earlier.
- right now. I mean the 2024 Academy curriculum actually refers to your agency's policy. But it does not talk about that. That is where we can fill in our opd policies. We can start them learning that early.
- It also incorporates the agency's instruction specific instruction during the Academy during that time where we can fill in and on, you know those hours that we can kind of play with?
- Like, I said, our optics rifle training, defensive tactics, 1st aid everything.
- here. What you know, another thing is our 10 codes
- recruits when they come in, you know, to orientation. Now you gotta learn 10 codes. Take tests. If we start getting them talking, learning the radio from day one immersing them that to me. I know if I had that I wouldn't have been so nervous with this guy as my account coordinator.

- We also we will partner with Seminole County. We've been in talks with them about using their driving range for Levo. We have defense detectives, classrooms, I mean, you know, rooms at Opd. At our training facility. We also have multiple classrooms that have already been certified. All of these have been certified by Opd. And Valencia. Sometimes use those now with the recruits as well.
- you know it allows us having our own Academy also allows us to start evaluating those recruits early. If we see something that needs to be worked on, instead of giving them this short time, we can from day one spend more time with those recruits that just aren't quite there, but they can be good officers. We know that a lot of recruits sometimes get lost in a shuffle just because they don't have that extra time.
- Why have them go through that and have to go to a smaller agency, learn and come back to us. We can start day one correcting and identifying those little small things that can just make them help them be successful.
- We are having our own Academy. We also have quality and control over those people who are instructing
- not to say that anything bad about any instructors, but we can know what the recruits are learning.
- Learn the opd way, and then it kind of eliminates, because we all know some recruits will say, Well, that's not what I learned in the Academy.
- Well, if you're already learning it the Opd way, then
- that throws that out of the window, our instructors will be vested in the recruits because they're training those people that are going to have to back them up on calls. They familiarize themselves with them. They know how you know I can have this recruit come day one of training and not be worried about if they just don't know. They've already started training with staff and OP. Officers.
- Like, I said, for us, establishing our own Academy, will help us with superior training quality.
- immersing them in their culture, early enhancing the evaluations and the mentorship of these young officers
- operational efficiency, and it would benefit us and the community we serve by getting these officers on the street quickly.
- Any questions anybody have any questions where y'all gonna do pt running at? Do you have a track?
- We actually would. Between here we're still, we'll be in talks with you about that and also at the training facility. Yeah, if you guys get approved, we're here for you for both agencies. You know, we've been in a huge partnership with these agencies for 30 years. So we're we're here to mentor and help and our tracks here and other things. So we can talk more.
- Seminole state. You're gonna use their drive. You guys are good with that, right? Because you need all the facilities. So that's good. You know. So again, my my point of view on this. You know, I've been here as the director you know, going on 8 years. I started when Rob, and working with the schools, and so on and so forth. You know I get, you know, I get the culture thing I get trying to immerse and get trying to have the agency people doing the teaching.
- because, you know, most of the schools are very generic, you know, and because we have to be because we have especially like my school. We have all kinds of agencies coming there. It's not just one or 2. It's multiple. But I always wondered why the larger agencies didn't have their own academy. To be honest with you.
- you guys, yeah, you guys have all the facilities, all that kind of stuff. So anyways.
- anybody have any comments. Screen.
- Make a motion to accept Orlando's bid for having Academy.

- So again, Captain Carrie Lowe, all those in favor.
- Aye.
- thank you all. Let me just add one other point from Valencia again. We've been in these partnerships with Orlando and Orange County for 30 years.
- The standard, I think in this region is very high, so I think you'll see just a very high standard spread across all 3 different training centers. If the 2 are approved by Fdle, and then, of course, we're here as a supplement we're here to support. We're here as a mentor for these agencies as well. So I think it for the region it's needed. We got such huge growth in the region. You all want your culture infused in each of your programs. We get it. And we're here to support.
- Okay? And I just have one other thing to add, it's not on the agenda because it just came out. Just so you guys all know, and I'm sure you probably have seen it just in case you didn't. So all our trust fund money is legislative based.
- And although all of us have our trust fund budgets in the Legislature just came back.
- and we've been reduced from $80 per officer to $78 and 56 cents per officer.
- So everybody's got to adjust their budgets.
- Something just came out from the Fdl yesterday. So just you guys, new guys coming in. That's you know, that happens. The trust fund used to be budgeted in a different way. But now it's all legislative based. So we're all dependent upon them to say, Here's your budget. Here you go. So that did just change. So it's going to affect us a little bit, and we're going to have to make those.
- You know, you guys are gonna have to make those
- those changes, the fun stuff. So just want to throw that out there. I have nothing for any old business, anybody have anything they want to make a suggestion go to their order. I got one quick question, are you a class, a or type, a class, A or B, you guys don't do corrections, do you? No, we don't.
- And yeah, yeah, so who does corrections in the region? You all do corrections besides. Me, yeah.
- all right. So that's it. So you are it? Yeah, yeah, we do. Orange County specifically. And then there's some non sponsored students.

Evan Doyle - Daytona State College
28:47
As well for Volusia and Flagler.

28:52
All right. So if there's nothing for good, your order, our next meeting. So this technically what isn't our is not our our fall meeting, but I'll be reaching out to you for a meeting, and probably Novemberish. We'll probably wait till after the commission meeting takes place, and we'll do something after that. So we can update everybody after the Commission meeting.

- So if nobody has anything, make a motion to adjourn motion to adjourn. Second, second, all those in favor getting adjourned have a great day. Thank you, guys, I really appreciate it.
- Thank you.

29. Do you contract with any CJSTC training school(s) to provide advanced or specialized training specifically for your agency? No.

30. If yes, which training school(s) do you use? Not applicable.

31. Why? Not applicable.

32. Where do your certified officers attend mandatory retraining? At your agency, the training school, or a combination of the two? Agency.

33. If you conduct mandatory retraining at your agency, why don't you use the training school? We have excellent in-house instructors, and Valencia College does not offer specific courses needed.

34. If not at the agency, which training school(s) do you use? Not applicable.

35. Why? Not applicable.

36. Do you utilize the academy's CJSTC approved high liability facilities for agency in-service training? No.

37. If yes, what facilities? Not applicable.

38. Does your agency provide personnel and/or equipment to the training school? Yes.

39. If yes, what personnel and/or equipment? We provide one coordinator for the basic law enforcement academies as well as instructors for high liability courses.

40. Are your training needs for basic recruit training being met by the current training school(s)? No.

41. If no, identify specific issues and circumstances where they have not been met. We have seen an increase in the percentages of our academy recruits not successfully completing our field training process. A large percentage of the recruits graduating from Valencia College have difficulty completing our orientation and field training program.

42. Are your training needs being met by the current training school(s) for advanced or specialized training? No.

43. If no, identify specific issues and circumstances where they have not been met. Advanced and specialized courses at Valencia College typically get filled quickly and waitlists are common for instructor courses and other topics of high importance. This causes a delay in getting officers into these courses or forces them to travel further to get the same training if it is available.

44. Are you aware that the Orlando Police Department has requested certification as a CJSTC Criminal Justice Training School? Yes.

45. Are you aware of any reasons why the CJSTC should either grant or deny this request? The CJSTC should grant their request.

46. If approved by the Commission and available, would you send your recruits or certified officers to the Orlando Police Department criminal justice academy for training instead of the current training school(s)? Yes.

47. Why? It would be our own agency academy.

48. Do you feel there is a need for an additional training school in Region VII? Yes ☒ No ☐

49. Do you have any additional comments? We have a strong relationship with Valencia College and will continue it. However, due to Orlando's growth, rising recruitment needs, and the FTO program's failure rate after the academy, we cannot keep up with the demands to adequately serve the citizens of Orlando. Early integration into the OPD culture will reduce post-academy training costs, better immerse recruits, and speed up meeting our staffing needs.

Valencia College currently holds and maintains a Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School Certification (Law Enforcement and Corrections) through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission, and we fully support the applications for a Type "B" Training School Certifications (Law Enforcement only) by both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. We value our longstanding, collaborative partnerships with these respected central Florida law enforcement agencies and are dedicated to continuing our mutual investment in high-quality criminal justice training in Orange County. In particular, our partnership with the Orange County Sheriff's Office has been instrumental in leveraging shared facilities and resources for decades, a testament to a committed and effective joint effort.

We believe that the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for these law enforcement agencies will not only strengthen our existing partnerships but also foster a transformative collaboration, particularly with the Orange County Sheriff's Office, as we move toward a model of shared, dedicated resources to support each other's law enforcement training programs.

This enhanced partnership includes the reciprocal use of critical training facilities and resources, such as the Sheriff's Office firearms range, driving (LEVO) range, tactical simulator, and the physical abilities course located on Valencia College's campus. Additionally, Valencia College will provide use to its classrooms, defensive tactics room, first aid room, computer labs, and office space to further support each other's training initiatives.

Furthermore, the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department is imperative for Valencia College to transform and update long-standing interlocal agreements with each agency to establish an improved and sustainable fiscal model that supports the long-term financial planning and operational efficiency of the law enforcement academy program for Valencia College.

Enrollments

In terms of enrollment, for many years, most of Valencia College's law enforcement academy classes have been largely filled with sponsored students from the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department.

In 2023, Valencia College enrolled 205 students in its law enforcement academy, with 126 students (61%) sponsored by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. In 2024, enrollment increased to 230 students, of which 140 (61%) were similarly sponsored by these two agencies.

While this high level of sponsorship reflects the strong partnerships with the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, it also significantly limits available space for non-sponsored students seeking law enforcement certification, as well as for recruits sponsored by other central Florida law enforcement agencies. These include the Altamonte Springs Police Department, Apopka Police Department, Clermont Police Department, Maitland Police Department, Ocoee Police Department, Sanford Police Department, University of Central Florida Police Department, Winter Park Police Department, Seminole County Sheriff's Office, and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, all of which have enrolled sponsored students in Valencia College's Law Enforcement Academy over the past two years.

Additionally, as an approved Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School, Valencia College offers multiple corrections academy classes annually as well. Typically, three classes are conducted each year in partnership with the Orange County Corrections Department, with additional students frequently sponsored by other agencies such as the Osceola and Seminole County Corrections Departments.

College Credit Pathway Programs

In addition to sponsorships from the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, two distinct academic pathways contribute to enrollment in Valencia College's law enforcement academy, and we must have law enforcement academy "seats" available for students in these programs. These include: (1) the Criminal Justice A.S. Law Enforcement Academy Track at Valencia College, and (2) the recently launched Criminal Justice B.A. Professional Track at the University of Central Florida (UCF). In both programs, students complete all required college credit coursework prior to enrolling in Valencia's law enforcement academy during their final semester. Upon successful completion of the law enforcement academy, students receive their law enforcement certification and fulfill the final requirements for their degree. College credits are awarded either through articulation following academy completion at Valencia or via an internship model at UCF.

Valencia College's Criminal Justice A.S. - Law Enforcement Academy Track program can be found at: https://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/degrees/associateinscience/criminaljusticeparalegalstudies/cjlawenforcementacademytrack/

https://www.ucf.edu/news/ucf-rolls-out-new-professional-track-for-bachelors-degree-in-criminal-justice/

Orange County Population Projections

Another important factor to consider regarding the success and sustainability of Valencia College's law enforcement program is the population growth in Orange County. The University of Florida's Bureau of Economic and Business Research (BEBR) reports Orange County's current population of 1,511,568 is projected to grow to between 1.81 million (20% increase) and 2.07 million (37% increase) by 2024. This growth will have a positive impact on enrollments in Valencia College's law enforcement program. As the Orange County's population grows, so too will the demand for public safety services, requiring the expansion of law enforcement personnel across local law enforcement and corrections agencies. This anticipated need for a larger, well-trained workforce will continue to position Valencia College as a critical pipeline for preparing future officers, increasing both the volume and diversity of candidates seeking certification and career advancement in criminal justice. The college is well-positioned to meet this demand through its established programs and partnerships with regional law enforcement agencies.

Planning and Support for a New Model in 2026

In anticipation of the possible approval of Training School Certifications for the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department on October 30th by the CJSTC, Valencia College is working closely with both agencies to support a smooth and successful transition. Collaborative planning is actively underway to project class schedules and enrollment needs for training programs to be held both at Valencia College and at the newly established training centers at each agency, to launch in 2026 if approved. This joint effort is further strengthening Valencia College's long-standing partnerships with both the Sheriff's Office and the Police Department, as we contribute our expertise and guidance to help shape this evolving model of law enforcement academy training in Orange County.

Lastly, to reiterate, Valencia College fully supports the approval of the Type "B" Training School Certification applications submitted by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. This initiative aligns with our shared commitment to expanding access to quality law enforcement training and strengthening public safety in our region. Our support is grounded in several key priorities as I highlighted in this letter: the increasing demand to accommodate more non-sponsored students, including those enrolled in our Criminal Justice A.S. Law Enforcement Academy Track, as well as the University of Central Florida's Criminal Justice B.A. Professional Track; the significant population growth projected in Orange County; and the importance of establishing a more sustainable and responsive fiscal model for Valencia College's law enforcement academy program as we transform our interlocal agreements with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Through continued collaboration with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, Valencia College remains committed to advancing and meeting the evolving needs of law enforcement officers in Orange County for many years to come.

To the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission:

On behalf of Valencia College, I offer our full support of the applications for Type "B" Training School Certifications (Law Enforcement only) by both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Valencia College (Valencia) currently holds and maintains a Type "A" Criminal Justice Training School Certification (Law Enforcement and Corrections) through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. We value our longstanding, collaborative partnerships with the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department, two respected central Florida law enforcement agencies, and we are dedicated to continuing our mutual investment in high-quality criminal justice training in Orange County.

We believe that the approval of the Criminal Justice Training School Certification for these law enforcement agencies will not only strengthen our existing partnerships but also foster a transformative collaboration as we move toward a model of shared, dedicated resources to support each other's law enforcement training programs.

The applications submitted by the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department align with our shared commitment to expanding access to quality law enforcement training and strengthening public safety in our region. Our support is grounded in several key priorities: the increasing demand to accommodate more non-sponsored students, including those enrolled in Valencia's Criminal Justice Associate in Science (A.S.) Law Enforcement Academy Track, as well as the University of Central Florida's Criminal Justice Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) Professional Track; the significant population growth projected for Orange County and the Central Florida region; and the importance of establishing a more sustainable and responsive fiscal model for Valencia's law enforcement academy program as we transform our interlocal agreements with both the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the Orlando Police Department. Through continued collaboration with both agencies, Valencia remains committed to advancing and meeting the evolving needs of law enforcement officers in Orange County for many years to come.

I answered "No" only because I feel that the schools need to start thinking outside the box in regards to getting agency training needs met. I do understand though that there may be some parameters that the schools just cannot meet, therefore, I understand why agencies feel they need their own.

AGENDA ITEM: 7

Florida Department of Law Enforcement Criminal Justice Excellence

ISSUE

This agenda item is provided to the Commission regarding research conducted by the Criminal Justice Excellence section related to officer retention, separations and discipline cases by officers hired from academic-based and agency-based training centers.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Research conducted by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Criminal Justice Excellence section at the request of the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. The research used data from the Automated Training Management System (ATMS) to elevate hired candidates from January 1, 2013, to December 31, 2024, who were trained at academic-based or agency-based training centers. Key metrics include officer retention, officer separations and distribution of separation reasons (e.g., terminations, resignations, voluntary separations), and officer discipline cases and distribution of disciplines imposed (e.g., revocation, suspension).

RECOMMENDATION(S): This agenda item does not require Commission action.

Executive Summary

Historically, academic-based training centers have been the lone, or at the very least, the primary setting for law enforcement (LE) training academies. However, LE agencies have recently begun creating their own training centers to host their own internal law enforcement training academies. The Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC) has requested a comparison between the quality of the candidates from academic-based LE training centers and agency-based LE training centers. This comparison is difficult to quantify due to the subjectiveness of "quality." However, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) has provided some indices of quality that may allow the Commission to draw comparative inferences.

The report uses data from the Automated Training Management System (ATMS) to evaluate hired candidates from January 1, 2013, to December 31, 2024, who were trained at academic-based or agency-based training centers. Key metrics include officer retention, officer separations and distribution of separation reasons (e.g., terminations, resignations, voluntary separations), and officer discipline cases and distribution of disciplines imposed (e.g., revocation, suspension).

When examining officer retention percentage, it was evident that both training center types demonstrate significant reductions in retention over time. However, the data indicates that the percentage of officers retained from academic-based centers was significantly lower than officers retained from agency-based centers. For example, of the hires from agency-based centers in years 2014, 2018 and 2022, a total of 76.9%, 81.2%, and 94.5% from were still employed in 2024. For academic-based center hires of the same years, 52.7%, 60.2%, and 80.3% were still employed in 2024. Officers hired from academic-based training centers were 2.5 times as likely to separate from employment and 1.9 times as likely to be terminated for violating agency/training center policy or moral character standards. There was no significant difference between training center types for officers separated for failure to complete a training requirement. Officers hired from academic-based institutions were 2.0 times as likely to have an officer discipline case, in general; 2.1 times as likely to have a discipline case resulting in revocation; and 3.5 times as likely to have a voluntary relinquishment case.

Overview

Historically, academic-based training centers have been the lone, or at the very least, the primary setting for law enforcement (LE) training academies. However, LE agencies have recently begun creating their own training centers to host their own internal law enforcement training academies. The Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC) has requested a comparison between the quality of the candidates from academic-based LE training centers and agency-based LE training centers. This comparison is difficult to quantify due to the subjectiveness of "quality." This report aims to provide inferences of officer quality by examining three key variables: officer retention, officer separation, and officer discipline cases. Each variable was sourced from the candidates' profiles in the Automated Training Management System (ATMS) database. These variables, taken together, provide indices of quality that may allow the Commission to draw comparative inferences.

Officer Retention—this report displays the number of candidates hired annually from 2013–2024 for each training center type. The number of candidates still employed as of December 31, 2024, divided by the number of hires in a given year will represent the annual retention percentage. For example, the number of hires from January 1, 2013, to December 31, 2013, still employed on December 31, 2024, divided by the number of hires in the same time frame, is the percent retained for 2013.

Officer Separation—this report displays the number of officers who have separated from employment and their reason for separation according to their employment history on their ATMS profile. By profiling the distribution of reasons for separation—such as terminations, failure to complete mandatory trainings, and voluntary separations—potential inferences can be made regarding candidate quality.

Officer Discipline Cases—this report displays the number of officers with an officer discipline case on their ATMS profile, verified by complaint number. Examining the frequency of cases and the nature of the discipline imposed (i.e., revocation) can shed light on candidate quality.

Data Selection

Automated Training Management System (ATMS) profiles that registered and enrolled in any training program of interest between January 1, 2013, and December 31, 2024, were evaluated (Table 1). The data was extracted from ATMS on August 21, 2025. The data source does not include data from Region 16, Florida Department of Corrections. The data variables of particular interest from the ATMS global profile are training program type, exam type, and employment class. Each of these data variables are representative of their respective employment class: correctional officer (CO), correctional probation officer (CPO), or law enforcement officer (LEO). The logical progression applied to these profiles was training program type = exam type = employment class; this means that, for example, a person passed the Florida Law Enforcement Academy (Program #2000), then passed the law enforcement SOCE, and was subsequently hired as a law enforcement officer (training type, exam type, and employment class = LE). Profiles that fit the criteria of this progression are present in Table 2 below, and these profiles were further evaluated according to the variables defined in the Overview section above.

Technical Notes

Profiles with employment class Auxiliary LE (ALE) were included with the standard LEO data variables for training program enrollment, exams administered, and employment obtained. For example, there were 314 and 128 ALE enrollments for academic- and agency-based training centers, respectively, and these values were both added to LEO enrollments for their respective training centers.

Employment stratifications are predicated on the type of training center (academic-based or agency-based) where the training program was completed, not where the exam was administered.

Profiles in ATMS that attended a program at the Florida Department of Corrections (Region 16) were not included in these analyses.

In this report, a chi-square test for association was used to examine the relation between training center type and separation from employment and training center type and officer discipline cases. The chi-square test for association determines whether there is an association between two categorical variables. It produces a statistic based on the overall "amount" of difference between the expected and observed frequencies. The further the observed frequencies are to the expected frequencies, the larger the test statistic, the greater the association and the more likely a statistically significant result (i.e., indicating that an association exists). The categorical variables are the “training center” variable (“academic” and “agency”), the “separation” variable (“separated–yes” and “separated–no”) and the “officer discipline” variable (“discipline–yes” and “discipline–no”).

Results

Officer Retention

The matrix tables in Appendices A and B represent years of service completed by the percentage of annual hires and the retention percentage of the annual hires as of December 31, 2024. For example, in 2013, there were 2,896 total candidates hired from academic-based training centers, and 7.3% of those hires have <1 year of service time while 51.0% have 11 years of service time (Appendix A). The 51.0% values also represent the number of hires retained in the work force as of December 31, 2024. In comparison, there were 321 total candidates hired from agency-based training centers, and 3.1% have <1 year of service time while 71.3% have 11 years of service time and are still active (Appendix B).

The annual retention percentages were plotted and analyzed with linear regression to access within-group trends over time. This analysis was performed for each employment class (CO, CPO, and LEO) and training center type (academic and agency). A statistically significant outcome would indicate that the slope of the trend line is significantly different from zero (a flat, horizontal line).

Next, the trend lines for each employment class were compared between training center type (e.g., academic LEO vs. agency LEO). A statistically significant outcome would indicate that the slope of the trend lines being compared are significantly different. Statistical significance was set a $p<0.05$ for all analyses.

When analyzed independently, linear regression models indicate that the retention percentage in CO and LEO employment classes at each training center have a significant negative slope ($p<0.001$ in all models). This indicates that the retention percentage was significantly reduced over time in these employment classes at both training center types. This was also true when analyzing all officers from academic-based and agency-based training centers ($p<0.001$). For CPO from academic-based training centers, the linear regression model revealed a significantly negative slope ($p<0.001$). Analysis was not performed on CPO from agency-based training centers due to sparse cases; however, these cases were included in the analysis for all hires.

When comparing training center types, the slopes were significantly different for CO ($p=0.029$, Figure 1A), LEO ($p=0.003$, Figure 1B), and all officers combined ($p=0.001$, Figure 1C). In all comparisons, the steepness of the line was lower in officers hired from academic-based training centers, indicating lower retention.

Officer Separations from Employment

Chi-square tests for association were conducted between training center type and separation among the hires. When analyzing all hires without separating by employment class, the results revealed a statistically significant association between separation and training center type, meaning that separation frequency differs between academic- and agency-based training centers ($p<0.001$). Specifically, 31.5% (12,693/40,258) of hires from academic-based training centers and 12.6% (671/5,312) of hires from agency-based training centers have separated from employment (Table 3). This data indicates that a hire from an academic-based training center was 2.5 times as likely to separate from employment (95% confidence interval: 2.3 to 2.7).

When analyzing by employment class (CO, CPO, and LEO), the frequency of separation was significantly different between academic-based and agency-based training centers for CO and LEO ($p<0.001$ for each). COs hired from an academic-based training center are 2.8 times as likely to separate from employment (95% confidence interval: 2.5 to 3.2) and LEOs are 2.2 times as likely (95% confidence interval: 2.0 to 2.4). Analysis on CPOs was not performed due to the sparse cases in agency-based training centers; however, these cases are included in the analysis for all hires described in the prior paragraph.

The five most prevalent separation reasons were voluntary separation (academic and agency: 1); termination for moral character violation (academic: 3, agency: 2); termination for agency/training center policy violation (academic: 2, agency: 4); failure to satisfactorily complete agency field training program (academic: 4, agency: 3); and resigned/retired while being investigated for moral character violation (academic and agency: 5). These five separation reasons account for 86.3% and 85.8% of the separation reasons by candidates hired from academic- and agency-based training centers, respectively, with voluntary separation being the primary reason by a large margin (academic: 70.9%, agency: 63.1%). Table 4 shows the comprehensive list of separation reasons. The following reasons for separation are not included in this report: deceased, line of duty death, extended leave of absence, military leave of absence, and transfer within the agency.

Officer Separations for Violating Agency/Training Center Policy or Moral Character Standards

When analyzing all hires without separating by employment class, the results revealed a statistically significant association where the frequency differs between academic-based and agency-based training centers for termination due to violating agency/training center policy or moral character standards ($p<0.001$). Specifically, 2.9% (1,187/40,258) of hires from academic-based training centers and 1.5% (81/5,312) of hires from agency-based training centers were terminated (Table 3). This result indicates that a hire from an academic-based training center was 1.9 times as likely to be terminated for violating agency/training center policy or moral character standards (95% confidence interval: 1.5 to 2.4).

When adding separations for resigned/retired in lieu of termination and resigned/retired while being investigated for violating agency/training center policy or moral character standards to the termination cases described in the prior paragraph, a similar relationship was found. A total of 5.4% of hires (2,174/40,258) and 2.5% of hires (132/5,180) from academic-based and agency-based training centers, respectively, were separated and/or terminated. A hire from an academic-based training center was 2.2 times as likely to resign/retire or be terminated for reasons pertaining to violation of agency/training center policy or moral character standards (95% confidence interval: 1.8 to 2.6). Separation reasons marked with the 'A' superscript in Table 4 were used for this analysis.

Officer Separations for Incomplete Training

When analyzing separations due to failure to complete a training requirement, there was no statistically significant association between training center type and separation due to incomplete training requirements ($p=0.986$). This finding indicates that the separation frequency for this reason was similar between training centers. Specifically, 1.5% of hires (607/40,258) from academic-based training centers and 1.5% of hires (79/5,312) from agency-based training centers separated from employment due to an incomplete training requirement. Separation reasons marked with the 'B' superscript in Table 4 were used for this analysis.

Officer Voluntary Separations

There was a statistically significant association where the frequency of voluntary separations differs between academic-based and agency-based training centers ($p<0.001$). A total of 22.6% of hires (9,093/40,258) from academic-based training centers and a total of 8.1% of hires (431/5,312) from agency-based training centers voluntarily separated from employment. A hire from an academic-based training center was 2.8 times as likely to voluntarily separate from employment (95% confidence interval: 2.5 to 3.1).

Officer Discipline Cases

A Chi-square test for association was conducted between training center type and discipline cases among the hires. The results revealed a statistically significant association where the frequency of discipline cases differ between academic- and agency-based training centers ($p<0.001$). Specifically, 2.6% (1,040/40,258) of candidates from academic-based training centers and 1.3% (67/5,312) of candidates from agency-based training centers had an officer discipline case on their ATMS record (Table 5). This data indicates that a hire from an academic-based training center was 2.0 times as likely to have a discipline case (95% confidence interval: 1.6 to 2.6).

When analyzing by employment class (CO, CPO, and LEO), the frequency of discipline cases was significantly different between academic- and agency-based training centers for CO ($p<0.001$) and LEO ($p=0.001$). COs hired from an academic-based training center were 4.0 times as likely to have a discipline case (95% confidence interval: 2.3 to 6.9) and LEOs are 1.6 times as likely (95% confidence interval: 1.2 to 2.1). Analysis on CPOs was not performed due to the sparse cases in agency-based training centers; however, these cases are included in the analysis for all hires described in the prior paragraph.

The outcomes of the discipline cases are provided in Table 6. For each training center type, revocation was the most prevalent outcome followed by suspension and probation as well as voluntary relinquishment.

Officer Discipline Cases Resulting in Revocation

When analyzing discipline cases that resulted in revocation, the frequency of these incidents was significantly different between training centers ($p<0.001$) whereby hires from academic-based training centers are 2.1 times as likely to have a revocation case (95% confidence interval: 1.5 to 2.9). The percentage of hires whose officer certification was revoked was 1.5% (592/40,258) for academic-based training centers and 0.7% (37/5,312) for agency-based training centers.

Officer Discipline Cases Resulting in Voluntary Relinquishment

When analyzing discipline cases resulting in voluntary relinquishment, the frequency of these incidents was significantly different between training centers ($p=0.001$) whereby hires from academic-based training centers are 3.5 times as likely to voluntarily relinquish their certification (95% confidence interval: 1.6 to 7.8). The percentage of hires whose officer certification was voluntarily relinquished was 0.4% (160/40,258) for academic-based training centers and 0.1% (6/5,312) for agency-based training centers.

AGENDA ITEM: J

General Information Agenda Item: Curriculum Updates Pursuant to Section 943.17, F.S.

ISSUE

This agenda item is presented to the Commission in compliance with the statutory requirement for staff to advise the Commission of any revision to approved basic recruit, advanced, and specialized curricula.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. Pursuant to s. 943.17, F.S., the Commission is responsible for the development and maintenance of basic recruit, advanced, and specialized training programs for Florida law enforcement, correctional, and correctional probation officers. Section 943.17(3), F.S., provides that the Commission is responsible for the accuracy of curriculum content through the identification and revision of typographical or grammatical errors, incorrect statutory citations, or information which can be identified as inaccurate by superior references. The statute states that the Commission shall be advised of any revision, and a copy of revised curricula shall be provided to all criminal justice training schools.
2. Curriculum alerts were created in an ongoing effort to ensure that Florida officers receive accurate and up-to-date information in curricula approved by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. Curriculum alerts highlight revisions to approved curricula that are considered critical in nature. Revisions come from several sources including subject matter experts, instructors, officers, agencies, and superior references, such as the legislature and a court of jurisdiction. Curriculum alerts are distributed to training schools and posted on the FDLE website and the Automated Training Management System.
3. To further formalize and document revisions to the Commission's approved curricula under s. 943.17(3), F.S., an issue is included in each quarterly meeting packet to identify the Commission courses that have been revised within the previous quarter.
4. The curriculum changes that are reflective of "legislative action" only will be included in this agenda item. Impacted course curricula will be distributed to the training schools and certified instructors with other Commission-approved curriculum updates.

RECOMMENDATION(S): This agenda item does not require Commission action.

VOTING IMPACT

CONSEQUENCES OF A "YES" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: A vote is not required.

CONSEQUENCES OF A "NO" VOTE ON STAFF RECOMMENDATION: A vote is not required.

However, any negligence on the part of the person bitten that is a proximate cause of the biting incident reduces the liability of the owner of the canine by the percentage that the bitten person's negligence contributed to the biting incident. A person is lawfully upon private property of such owner within the meaning of this act when the person is on such property in the performance~~

~~of any duty imposed upon him or her by the laws of this state or by the laws or postal regulations of the United States, or when the person is on such property upon invitation, expressed or implied, of the owner. The remedy provided by this section is in addition to and cumulative with any other remedy provided by statute or common law.~~

~~Section 767.16, F.S. Bite by a police or service canine; exemption from quarantine.—~~

~~Any canine that is owned, or the service of which is employed, by a law enforcement agency, or any canine that is used as a service canine for blind, hearing impaired, or disabled persons, and that bites another animal or human is exempt from any quarantine requirement following such bite if the canine has a current rabies vaccination that was administered by a licensed veterinarian.~~

~~Section 828.12, F.S. Cruelty to animals.—~~

~~(1) A person who unnecessarily overloads, overdrives, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance or shelter, or unnecessarily mutilates, or kills any animal, or causes the same to be done, or carries in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or by a fine of not more than $5,000, or both.~~

~~(2) A person who intentionally commits an act to any animal which results in the cruel death, or excessive or repeated infliction of unnecessary pain or suffering, or causes the same to be done, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or by a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.~~

~~(a) A person convicted of a violation of this subsection, where the finder of fact determines that the violation includes the knowing and intentional torture or torment of an animal that injures, mutilates, or kills the animal, will be ordered to pay a minimum mandatory fine of $2,500 and undergo psychological counseling or complete an anger management treatment program.~~

~~(b) Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this subsection will be required to pay a minimum mandatory fine of $5,000 and serve a minimum mandatory period of incarceration of 6 months. In addition, the person will be released only upon expiration of sentence, will not be eligible for~~

~~parole, control release, or any form of early release, and must serve 100 percent of the court-imposed sentence. Any plea of nolo contendere will be considered a conviction for purposes of this subsection.~~

~~(3) A veterinarian licensed to practice in the state will be held harmless from either criminal or civil liability for any decisions made or services rendered under the provisions of this section. Such a veterinarian is, therefore, under this subsection, immune from a lawsuit for his or her part in an investigation of cruelty to animals.~~

~~(5) The department is authorized to promulgate rules for the implementation of this section.~~

~~Section 776.05, F.S. Law enforcement officers; use of force in making an arrest. —~~

SAFETY PRACTICES

2.1.2. Discuss the canine team training safety rules that are necessary to provide a safe environment for canine team training

Supervision

Training will be under the direct supervision of the instructor, and handlers will not take part in any training of their canine outside of the course instruction. The handler must be cognizant of their environmental surroundings and always maintain control of their canine at all times. Canines will also be on lead at all times, unless otherwise indicated by one of the instructors. Off-lead training will occur at the direction of the instructor, and the canine is not to be agitated without the instructor's supervision.

Medical Care

It is important to understand the canine team's physical and psychological limits, so always allow a cool-off period for the canine to avoid overheating. All pre-existing injuries and medical conditions must be reported to the lead instructor before beginning training; and all injuries to canines and instructor students received during training must be reported immediately to the lead instructor. Ensure the safety of the training venue and assess for conditions that may be dangerous to the canine team or the public.

Curriculum Alert

Handlers will have water available for their canines at all times. They must also maintain, and make readily available, a first aid kit for both the canine and the handler. Finally, handlers shall know the location and contact information of their local emergency veterinarian and animal hospital.

Commands and Signals

When an instructor says stop or the designated signal to stop is given, all activity is to stop immediately. All activity also stops when the term "REAL BITE" or "LOOSE DOG" is given. All handlers will immediately account for their canine and take control, if necessary.

Equipment Checks

Conduct an equipment check to ensure proper maintenance and functionality. Vehicle cages will be locked/secured at all times unless otherwise directed by an instructor. If applicable, heat monitors and bailout systems will be tested on each vehicle weekly, and any problems will be reported.

Behavior

There will be no horseplay or unsafe behavior in the presence of the dogs that might jeopardize the safety of anyone in the area or the dog. Handlers will announce the dog's presence whenever entering or exiting an area.

Unit 2: The Learning Process of the FTO Program

2.2.4. Explain the concept of comfort zone in the field training program

Comfort zone can be defined as a desirable situation, place, or association with certain people that makes a person feel at ease and able to communicate freely and honestly. A person's comfort zone is generally predictable.

The FTO should create a comfort zone for the trainee so that communication is not impeded. Inspired by Dale Carnegie's writings are the following suggestions which will assist the FTO in creating a comfort zone for the trainee:

- ~~Do not criticize or~~ Give constructive feedback, but do not condemn.
- Give honest and sincere appreciation.
- Arouse interest in the trainee.

Curriculum Alert

- Become genuinely interested in the trainee.
- Smile as a gesture of friendliness.
- Remember the trainee's name as a sign of better bonding.

Unit 2: The Learning Process of the FTO Program

Lesson 3: Supervision and Leadership by the FTO, page 28 (Student Guide, page 25)

2.3.4. Explain the three styles of leadership for the FTO

1. Autocratic~~— This is often referred to as Theory X~~. An FTO who uses the autocratic style makes all decisions without any input from the trainee. This is a directing and controlling style that employs a "my way or the highway" approach to leadership.
2. Democratic~~— This is often referred to as Theory Y.~~ An FTO who uses the democratic style allows the trainee to participate and have input in the decision-making process. This style involves the trainee in decision making which encourages them to comply and ~~Theory Y~~ is appropriate when training the trainee on matters of agreement (such as decision making and problem solving) rather than policy issues.
3. Laissez-faire—This is often referred to as over-delegation or free-rein style. The FTO avoids making decisions and allows the trainee to do whatever they choose placing few limitations on their actions. This is an extreme style and is not recommended.

There is no right or wrong style of leadership. ~~to use between theories C and Y~~. Either ~~theory~~ style can be used depending on which is appropriate for the situation and the trainee's personal needs.

Unit 3: Evaluation and Remediation

3.1.6. Describe the components of the field training

The original San Jose Model Field Training and Evaluation program is 14 weeks. The length or structure may vary from agency to agency (stretching between 12 to 18 weeks) depending on size, availability of FTOs, or other specialized programs that may be incorporated. Also, a trainee may require additional time (Extension time) to complete the remedial training.

After orientation, the ~~F~~field training evaluation is generally divided into five ~~phases~~ segments (Phase I, II, III and IV, then the ~~Final Phase~~ post-field training probation period); however, the exact number of phases and their respective durations are determined by each agency. Each phase has distinguishing characteristics and purposes. The primary function is to provide the trainee with benchmarks to measure personal success and progress. The trainee generally transitions smoothly from Phase I to Phase II; however, specific requirements must be met to transition to Phases III and IV.

3.3.2. Identify the various reports generated in the field training program

~~The reports generated vary from agency to agency and may include the following:~~ In addition to the DOR and the Supervisor's Weekly Report, other reports generated from agency to agency may include the following:

- ~~Daily Observation Report – This is an evaluation document that provides immediate, consistent, and fair evaluation of the trainee's performance. It serves as the trainee's report card and reflects the ratings earned on a given shift. It is based on the FTO's daily observed behavior of the trainee's performance on critical; law enforcement tasks using the 7-point rating scale. It is reviewed and signed by the trainee, FTO, Supervisor, and the FTO Administrator.~~
- ~~Supervisor's Report – This is generated by the appropriate supervisor on as needed basis. This report provides the supervisor's recommendations for the trainee's goal setting and remediation, if necessary. The content of this report is discussed at FTO meetings, and reviewed and signed by the trainee, FTO, Supervisor, and the FTO Administrator.~~

- End of Phase Report—This is generated by the FTO at the end of each training phase. The report lists specific training that has been provided during a particular phase and details the trainee's strengths, progress, and/or weaknesses. The report also recommends training needed during the upcoming phase or suggests specific remediation training for the trainee, if necessary.
- ~~FTO~~ Field Training Coordinator/Administrator's Report—This is generated by the ~~FTO~~ Field Training Coordinator/Administrator. It provides checks-and-balances of training given to the trainee and affirms that the FTO is performing their training function in accordance with the agency guidelines. It details the ~~FTO~~ Field Training Coordinator/Administrator's one-on-one contact with the trainee to discuss their training and performance as well as any other problems experienced while going through the program.

Unit 2: Recognizing Crimes Against Animals

Lesson 5: Other Crimes Against Animals

Officers must recognize that a report of abandonment does not always mean the animal is truly abandoned. For instance, there are cases where no one lives on the property, but someone is still coming by to care for the animal(s). This would not be an example of abandonment. For s. 828.13, F.S., to apply, the owner would have to fail to supply the animal with proper and sufficient quantity of food and water.

Finally, note that it is a third-degree felony to abandon a restrained dog during a natural disaster, such as a hurricane, tropical storm, tornado or when the county is under a mandatory or voluntary evacuation order.

Unit 3: Responding to Crimes Against Animals

Lesson 1: Respond to the Call, page 60

3.1.10. Identify common resources for cases involving animals

Working with, and relying on, animal subject matter experts like veterinarians, animal control, members of the humane society, and more are critical to the success of an animal abuse investigation. Attempting to work the case without the necessary skills will ultimately hinder the case. Furthermore, only veterinarians can officially diagnose an animal with an injury, illness, or disease. Considering the species, the animals' behavior, the type of crime, and other factors, the investigator may want to hold the scene and call for assistance.

Instructor Note: Advise the class that while private agencies such as the ~~Humane Society of the U.S. (HSUS)~~ Humane World for Animals (formerly the Humane Society of the United States) or ASPCA can be helpful resources, it is important to use caution and understand the associated risks of relying on them during criminal investigations.

Also, review and have students complete the mandatory scenario: Backyard Neglect.
