Five Law Enforcement Officers Inducted into Hall of Fame

2025 Inductees

Chief Kenneth R. Albano
Temple Terrace Police
Department
Nominated by Florida Police
Chiefs Association

Chief Kenneth Albano (ret.) began his 39-year law enforcement career in 1982 as a military police officer with the 82nd Airborne Division while serving in the U.S. Army. In February 1988, Chief Albano was hired by the Plant City Police Department. While at Plant City, he held various positions including officer, detective, patrol sergeant, and captain. As a captain, he served as the commander of Administrative Services and Criminal Investigations and as the department's first accreditation manager. In April 2006, Chief Albano joined the Temple Terrace Police Department as the commander of the Patrol Division. Chief Albano also served as the commander of the Criminal Investigations Division, the Special Weapons and Tactics Team (S.W.A.T.), and the Crisis Response Team and Training Unit. Chief Albano was appointed chief of police on December 23, 2008, and served in that role until his retirement on February 28, 2025. Chief Albano is known as a dedicated Christian man, a loving husband, father, and Papa; and for fostering trust and transparency within the community, as a visionary leader whose efforts led to the establishment of Temple Terrace's first Boys and Girls Club, and for his unwavering commitment to public safety. Chief Albano is a past president and life member of both the Florida Police Chiefs Association and the Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Association.

Undersheriff Jerry Bryan
Walton County Sheriff's Office
Nominated by State Law
Enforcement Chiefs' Association

Undersheriff Jerry Bryan (ret.) began his 36-year career in law enforcement at the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office in 1985. From 1986 - 1988, Undersheriff Bryan worked for the Wakulla County Sheriff's Office, serving in both patrol and investigations. He returned to the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office in 1988, serving as a field training officer and a member of the narcotics task force. In 1994, he joined the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Office of Inspector General where he served as a lieutenant and chief of Investigations. He joined the Office of Agricultural Law Enforcement (OALE) in 2001, serving as captain in the Bureau of Investigative Services, chief of the Bureau of Uniform Services, lieutenant colonel, and colonel. As colonel, Undersheriff Bryan modernized the agency, focusing on efficiency and supporting the department's vast agricultural and consumer oversight responsibilities. Undersheriff Bryan was a pioneer in servant leadership. He was ahead of his time in developing leaders and establishing culture benefiting everyone within the agency. He recognized talent and challenged people to exceed their expectations of themselves. He honored his staff through vision, empowerment, influence, and being a servant. Undersheriff Bryan retired from OALE in May 2016. In December 2016, Undersheriff Bryan was appointed chief deputy by Sheriff Michael Adkinson, Jr. at the Walton County Sheriff's Office. He faithfully served in Walton County until August 2021, when he retired as undersheriff. At the Walton County Sheriff's Office, he was instrumental in elevating pay for administrative support personnel, which increased organizational morale and employee quality of life. Undersheriff Bryan holds a bachelor's degree in criminology from Florida State University and is a certified public manager and certified inspector general. Undersheriff Bryan was born and raised in Fort Walton Beach and resides in Tallahassee.

Chief Stephen J. Stepp
Palm Beach Gardens Police
Department
Nominated by Florida Police
Chiefs Association

Chief Stephen Stepp (ret.) began his service in the U.S. Army and Florida National Guard. He began his law enforcement career with the North Miami Police Department, serving from 1978 - 2003. During his tenure, he worked as a patrol officer, instructor, K-9 handler, school resource officer, and investigator. As supervisor of the Vice, Intelligence and Narcotics Unit, he led task forces focused on the arrest of violent felons, conducted undercover narcotics operations, and dismantled criminal organizations. Rising to assistant chief, Chief Stepp remained active in the community, serving on the Senior Citizens Foundation Board and coaching youth sports for over 25 years. From 2003 - 2018, Chief Stepp served as chief of police for the City of Palm Beach Gardens. He enhanced community policing through problem-solving partnerships and created a citizen's mobile patrol, an award-winning Police Explorer program, and citizen's police academy. He founded Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation to fund scholarships, events, and specialized equipment and training. He played a key role in creating an indoor tactical training facility and 9-1-1 dispatch and emergency operations center. Chief Stepp served Palm Beach County as a member of the Criminal Justice Commission and as president of the Association of Chiefs of Police. His career is marked by numerous awards for leadership, courage, and community service.

Chief Charles E. Nanney
South Miami Police Department
Nominated by Florida Police
Benevolent Association

Chief Charles E. Nanney (ret.) began his career at the Miami-Dade Police Department (MDPD) in 1987 and served 31 years as an officer up to division chief. He was on the front lines during the county's peak of crime. He later served almost four years as the assistant chief at the South Miami Police Department, serving South Florida residents for nearly 35 years. He led the South District, the Carol City District, the Northside District, the Narcotics, Organized Crime and Gang Bureau, the Robbery Bureau, the Warrants Bureau, and the Special Investigations Division. He always intertwined community policing in all his enforcement efforts. Chief Nanney has advocated for police-community relations and has served on numerous boards such as the South Florida High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas Board, the Urban League of Greater Miami, and the Embrace Girls Foundation. Chief Nanney has amassed innumerable commendations and earned the following departmental awards: two Distinguished Officer of the Month awards, two Silver Medals of Valor, two Bronze Medals of Valor, two Lifesaving Awards, a Purple Heart, two Exceptional Service Awards, and three Employee Excellence Awards. At his retirement, he was one of the most decorated police officers at MDPD. In 2018, Miami-Dade County honored him with a proclamation naming October 18th as Chief Charles E. Nanney Day.

Remembering Sheriff Farmer

William "Bill" Farmer Jr., former Sumter County Sheriff, passed away on September 15, 2025.

He served and protected United States citizens and his community for over 58 years. In addition to his outstanding contributions to the law enforcement community, he advocated for multiple charitable initiatives and raised a substantial amount of money for youth and other community programs. He enriched the lives of those that knew him and served as a model for law enforcement. He will be missed, but his legacy continues on in his family, the individuals he interacted with and the programs he facilitated to assist his community. Sheriff Farmer was honored on Saturday, September 27, 2025, as one of the 2025 Law Enforcement Officers' Hall of Fame inductees where his family accepted his award on his behalf.

Sheriff William "Bill" Farmer Jr.
Sumter County Sheriff's Office
Nominated by Florida Sheriff's Association

Sheriff William O. Farmer Jr. (ret.), "Bill," a U.S. Army veteran, has devoted 56 years to law enforcement. He began his career with the FBI in Washington, D.C., in 1965. Later working with the Florida Department of Corrections and local police departments before joining the Sumter County Sheriff's Office in 1971. Over the next 25 years, he served as a sergeant up to chief deputy before deciding to run for sheriff. Elected as sheriff in 1996, he served seven consecutive terms, the longest in county history. Sheriff Farmer, who graduated cum laude, earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from St. Leo University. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy (195th Session), the 1997 Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute's Chief Executive Seminar, and the National Sheriffs' Institute Executive Development Program. During his tenure, he rose through the Florida Sheriffs Association (FSA) board to become president, the only Florida sheriff to serve two consecutive terms. As president, he led the appointment of a new executive director and formed the committee that developed a new FSA headquarters after the original headquarters was destroyed by fire. He also served as chaplain for the FSA, a board member for the Florida Sheriffs Risk Management Fund Board, and chairman of the Florida Model Jail Standards Committee. Sheriff Farmer chaired the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Board of Directors for two terms, raised over $100,000 for youth programs, and launched a children's bicycle initiative. In recognition of his lasting impact, the Public Safety Center in The Villages was named in his honor. He retired in January 2025. Sheriff Farmer's legacy reflects visionary leadership, integrity, and a lifetime of public service.

FLORIDA MEDICAL EXAMINERS COMMISSION

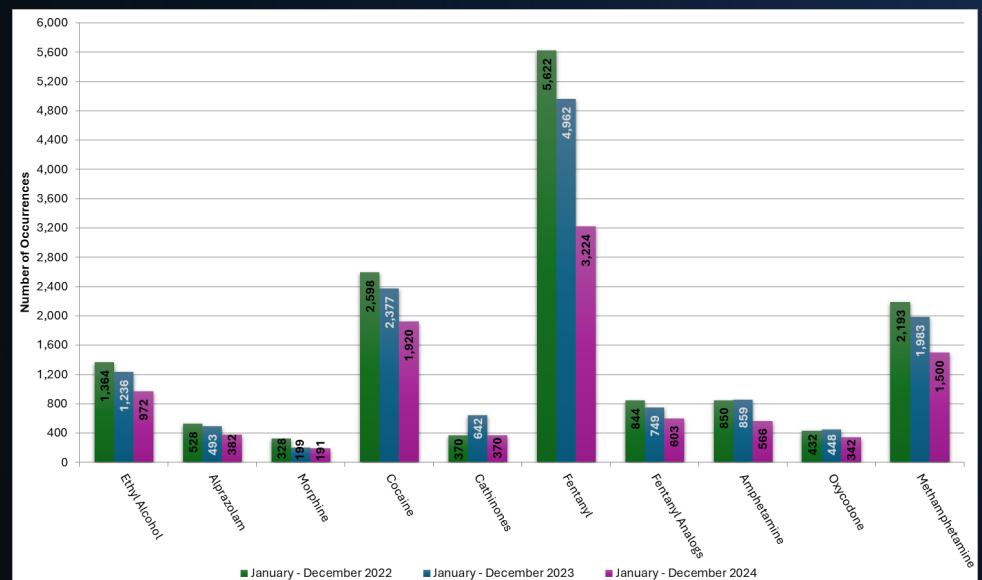

The Medical Examiners Act, Chapter 406, Florida Statutes, was enacted by the 1970 Legislature in order to establish minimum and uniform standards of excellence in statewide medical examiner services.

The Medical Examiners Commission (MEC) assesses if a violation of Chapter 406, Florida Statute, Rule 11G, Florida Administrative Code, or the Practice Guidelines for Florida Medical Examiners occurred.

- The MEC closed 2 complaints from August 1 to October 1, 2025. The complaints were determined to be not legally sufficient and were generally related to the cause and manner of death.

The medical examiner with jurisdiction determines the cause and manner of death after careful consideration using all the information provided to them.

The MEC published the 2024 Drugs Identified in Deceased Persons by Florida Medical Examiners Annual Report in October 2025. The following chart shows an overall decrease in drug occurrences in decedents since 2022. View and download complete MEC publications online at <https://www.fdle.state.fl.us/mec/publications-and-forms>.

Florida Medical Examiners Commission Statistics & Information

The Medical Examiners Commission (MEC) published the 2024 Annual Workload Report in September 2025. The following statistics are based on the report's information for the State of Florida in 2024.

- Florida District Medical Examiner's Offices accepted jurisdiction over approx. 84% of total Florida deaths (not including cremation approvals)
- Approximately 10% of the total deaths in Florida were classified as violent which includes cases with the manner of death listed as suicide, homicide, accident, and undetermined

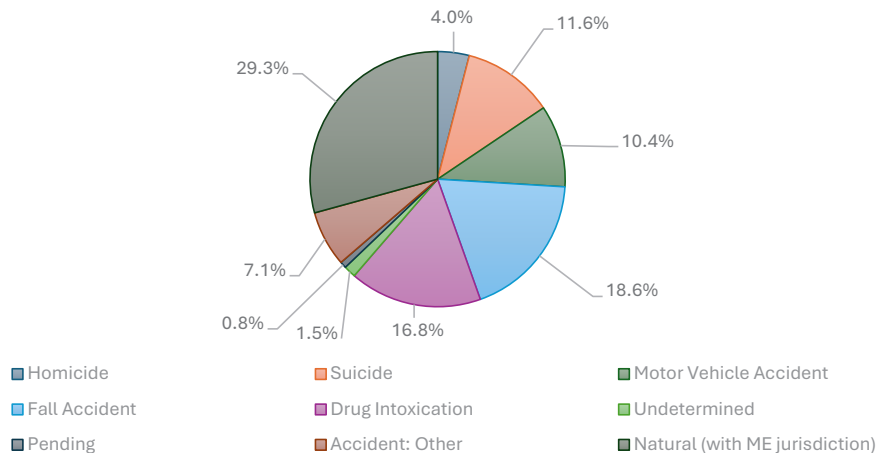

Per section 406.11, Florida Statute, the medical examiner shall determine the cause of death and for that purpose, make or perform examinations, investigations, or autopsies as they deem necessary or as requested by the state attorney.

- Approx. 99% of homicides had autopsies performed
- Approx. 89% of undetermined deaths had autopsies performed
- Approx. 74% of suicides had autopsies performed

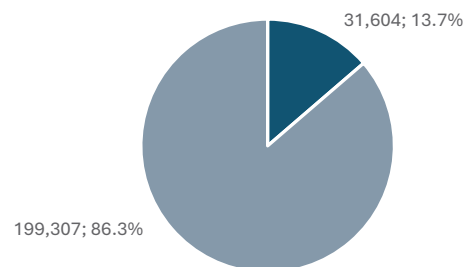

The cause and manner of deaths where autopsies were not performed were determined by other means which may consist of an external examination, medical records, imaging or labs, or other means not specifically listed.

2024 Florida Deaths (with ME Jurisdiction)
Manner of Death Percentage Chart

Florida Medical Examiner Case Workload
(total 2024 Florida deaths: 230,911)

- Cases that fall under the Medical Examiner's jurisdiction per s. 406.11, F.S.
- Cases that did not fall under the Medical Examiner's jurisdiction

The above numbers do not include cremation approval requests sent to the medical examiner.

58th Class of the Chief Executive Seminar

The Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute announces the graduation of 25 chief executives from the Chief Executive Seminar on October 10, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. at the Drury Plaza Hotel in Tallahassee. The graduates, who represent criminal justice agencies from around the state, serve in leadership roles within their agencies.

Participants met for one week a month for three months, taking classes on topics such as future trends, social media, stress management, succession planning, and Trust-Based Leadership to name a few.

The goal of the Chief Executive Seminar is to prepare Florida's criminal justice leadership for the challenging demands of the future. Class participants study trends and events that may affect criminal justice professionals and Florida while developing new leadership skills to address the changes that lie ahead.

The Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute, established within the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and affiliated with the state university system, was established in 1990 by the Florida Legislature in recognition of the need for an innovative and multifaceted approach to the education and training of criminal justice professionals.

Florida Law Enforcement Analyst Academy Certifies 33 Analysts

The Florida Law Enforcement Analyst Academy is proud to announce the graduation and certification of 33 law enforcement analysts on November 7, 2025. Analysts who attend the academy meet one week a month for six months. The analysts were challenged with weekly assignments and quizzes, group and individual projects, and a comprehensive final exam. Successful graduates are designated by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) as a Certified Law Enforcement Analyst.

The Florida Law Enforcement Analyst Academy was developed by FDLE in 2003; its goal is to provide analysts the opportunity to sharpen their criminal and intelligence analysis skills. The curriculum for this academy is frequently updated to ensure that it remains relevant with the ever-changing world of technology. The academy provides resources and tools to assist the analysts in their mission to predict and prevent criminal activity. With the graduation of this class, 39 academies have been delivered, and 930 analysts have been certified.

PROFESSIONALISM

DIVISION UPDATES

Halie Heath

Halie Heath joined the Professional Compliance section in June 2025, working as a Case Specialist in Officer Discipline. In her new role, she will process cases of misconduct by law enforcement and correctional officers. She first started at FDLE in the Firearm Eligibility Bureau in November 2022, processing thousands of firearm transactions. Prior to coming to FDLE, she worked at Publix for nearly 10 years, followed by pet grooming for three years.

Dominic Larry

Dominic Larry joined the Bureau of Standards as a Government Operations Consultant III in the Professional Compliance section in July 2025. In his new role, he will process cases of misconduct by law enforcement, correctional officers, correctional probation officers, and criminal justice instructors that have been forwarded to the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission (CJSTC) as required by Chapter 943, Florida Statute. Dominic joined the agency earlier this year as an OPS Criminal Justice Information Analyst I in the Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division. Earlier this year, Dominic married his wife, Jewel, who also works at FDLE Headquarters (HQ). He also currently shares his career at FDLE HQ with his father, Christopher Larry, and his sister, Destiny Larry.

Andrew Jaffe

Andrew Jaffe joined FDLE in September 2022 as a Crime Intelligence Analyst with the Missing Endangered Persons Information Clearinghouse. In March 2024, he advanced to the Systems Administration Unit as an Operations Review Specialist, where he served as the statewide administrator for 15 investigative systems and led statewide data projects. More recently, Andrew joined Criminal Justice Professionalism, Standards & Training Services (CJPSTS) where he was promoted to Research and Statistics Consultant with the Criminal Justice Excellence (CJE) section. Over the last three years, he has developed technical expertise in project management, customer service, data visualization, and has extensive experience providing analytical support to law enforcement agencies in an operational capacity. In his current role, Andrew will analyze and visualize data, streamline data workflow pipelines, and collaborate with various bureaus across the agency to design and implement research initiatives. His work emphasizes clarity, efficiency, and actionable insights to support the missions of CJPSTS and FDLE. Andrew earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the University of Florida.
