Good afternoon Sir,

My apologies, I thought I added comments to it. That instrument was set up as a spare and placed in a corner. I moved it away from the corner and that cleared the issue.

Mr. Beasley,

You are listed as the contact for Instrument 80-001133 (correct?). A review of the Dec 2018 Agency Inspection for Instrument 80-001133 revealed that one of the tests had to be repeated. Please indicate a possible cause and corrective action in the remarks section of Form 40 whenever a test is repeated.

Thank you,

Brett Kirkland, Ph.D.
